Obituary

Carrie James was born on September 27, 1945 to Bertha Coleman in Idabel, Oklahoma. Carrie was the first of five siblings.

Carrie accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. She lived a wonderful dutiful life.

Carrie attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and graduated from Douglass High School in 1963. Carrie then became employed by John A. Brown in downtown Oklahoma City, until they closed. She then went on to work for Edwards Redeemer Nursing Home for many years until she retired.

Carrie James loved her family and was very capable of stretching the dollar. As the oldest sibling, she would do her best to cut and use coupons, ride a bus or drive near or far for a sale. She blessed her siblings with her expert shopping skills. Carrie loved her Mom and would make sure she was well taken care of. Carrie loved numbers and usually had a pad and pencil handy with math problems that she had worked.

Carrie was never married and was preceded in death by a brother, Joe Will Haagen. She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother, Bertha Coleman of Oklahoma City; three siblings, two sisters, Mary Lynn Brooks (Willie II), Phoenix, Arizona; Roxieanna Lee Caraway (Ronald), and her brother, James Curtis Coleman of Oklahoma City; fourteen nieces and nephews: April Coleman, Reuben Haagen (California), Reshia Keyes, Rena Caraway (South Carolina), Ronya Caraway, Rondale Caraway, Willie Brooks III (Arizona), Tiffany Coleman, Shaylin Coleman, Brooke Haagen, Brittany Haagen, Rachel Smith (Bartlesville, Oklahoma), Jontae Coleman, Curtis Coleman; and many more great nieces and nephews; other relatives and friends.

Carrie James was a much loved beautiful Daughter, Sister Aunt, and Friend. She will truly be missed.
