Obituary

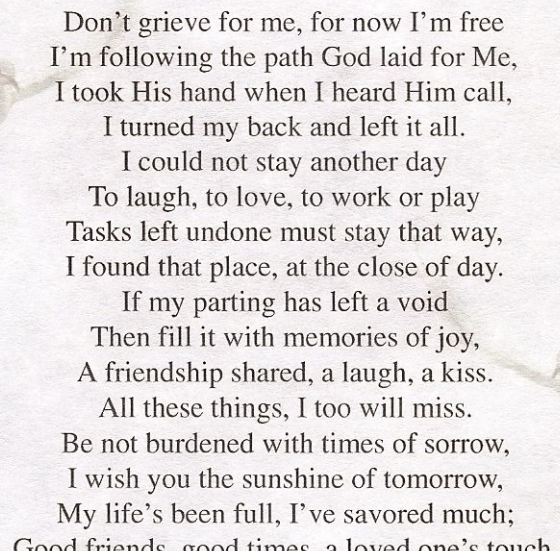

George Weldon Foreman, II was born December 19, 1953 to George and Inez "Odessa" Foreman. His sister, Linda Carol and his parents preceded him in death.

George joined the church at an early age. He graduated from Douglass High School in 1972. He attended Oklahoma State University for one year, then he joined his sister at Northwestern University.

George went to work at the United States Post Office and worked there 2 years. There was one thing that George always wanted to do and that was he wanted to be a Preacher more than anything else. He would often say, "I could stay at church all day." Well, George maybe getting his dream come true.

He leaves to cherish his memory, cousins: Betty Fields, Marjorie Irvin, Calvin Irvin, John Fields, Richard B. Nealy, II, Randall B. Nealy, and other cousins from Oklahoma City, relatives in Texas, and a host of friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for Me,
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place, at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with memories of joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
All these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
