Obituary

Today we celebrate the home going of Booker T. Bruner, III. Booker was born on April 14, 1968 to Laura A. Bruner and Booker T. Bruner, Jr.

Booker accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a young age, attending Redeemed Missionary Baptist Church as a young child. He attended Oklahoma City Public Schools for his primary and secondary education, finishing at Northwest Classen High School. In his younger years, he worked in the warehouse industry as well as part of the janitorial staff for Oklahoma City Public Schools.

Booker was an unassuming and humble man who was an avid sports fan, no matter the season, there was a game on that he was watching. He also enjoyed reading mystery novels. He was most comfortable staying home in the company of family and friends. He spent the past five years caring for his disabled mother.

He was preceded in death by both sets of grandparents, his father, Booker T. Bruner, Jr. and his brother, Lewis D. Bruner.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving mother, Laura A. Bruner; three sisters: LaDonna Johnson (Dale), Brooksie Bruner and Tracy Granger; two brothers: Markus Bruner and Stephen Bruner; seventeen nieces and nephews; three great nieces and nephews; as well as a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.
