Obituary

Leola Bragg was born March 5, 1932 to Tom and Arkie Wilson in Paris, Texas. Leola also known as "Pookie" was the third of six children. It was in Paris, Texas at an early age, she accepted Christ and attended Springhill School. Leola later married the love of her life, Joe Henry Bragg of Guthrie, Oklahoma. To this union one child was born, Terry Joe Bragg.

During Leola's time on earth, she was a devoted wife, mother and sister. For 40 years, "Pookie" and her sister was known as a avid collector and dealer of antiques throughout the Oklahoma City area. They did everything together you never seen one without the other. But when it came to haggling with "Pookie" O.M.G.!! You had better come with you "A" game, this woman did not play. You either pay or walk away. With that being said, she really had a huge heart. She only had one child but helped raise many nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews. And for that each one played a huge part of returning that love during her last days here on earth.

Leola is preceded in death by one sister, Veola McGrew; two brothers, Vonree Wilson and Marven Wilson.

Leola leaves to cherish her memories, one son, Terry Bragg of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; one sister, Bertha Statum of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; one brother, Ralph Wilson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; a host of nieces, nephews, and friends to cherish her memories forever.
