Obituary

Reginald Antonio Bagby was born October 1, 1957 at West Palm Beach, Florida to the late Joe B. Bagby, Sr.

Reggie attended John Marshall High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. After Reggie graduated, he soon joined the United States Air Force. Upon leaving the military, he found the passion of cooking.

He moved to Chicago, Illinois to work for the State as a Mental Health Technician. Reggie was known for his kind and laid back personality. Reggie would do anything for his family and friends. And as the Lord said, "Give and it shall be given unto you."

Reggie was blessed with three brothers: Joe B. Bagby, Jr., Ronald Bagby, and Phillip Bagby. Reggie is also remembered by his nephews: Ron Bagby, Joseph Bagby, Jeramey Bagby, Andonis Bagby, Cory Wilson, and niece, TaSheeka Jennings; Reggie's sisters-in-law: Deitra Bagby and Joyce Gay, as well as his two aunts: Shirley Garland and Carolyn Roff, who will also remember his life. Reggie left behind a loving mother, and stepfather, Robert and Roberta Hamilton; Reggie also left behind a stepbrother, Robert Hamilton, Jr.; and a host of stepbrothers and sisters, as well as friends and other family members.

God called upon Reggie Bagby to come home February 19, 2014. He will be missed by all his family and friends.
