

*In Loving Memory
of
Georgia Mae Shaw*

*Sunrise
December 22, 1935*

*Sunset
March 14, 2014*

Services

Saturday, March 22, 2014 - 2:00 p.m.

Tabitha Baptist Church

*1219 Northeast Grand Blvd.
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73117*

*Reverend J.L. Mitchell, Pastor
Dr. Terrence Autry - Officiating
Christ Community, Dallas, Texas*

Obituary

On December 22, 1935, God blessed Daniel and Annie Mae Randolph with their first born child, Georgia Mae Randolph. She became the oldest of five children. Georgia attended Frederick High School in Frederick, Oklahoma. She excelled in basketball and track.

Georgia accepted Christ at an early age.

Later in life, she united with Joe Earl Shaw, Sr. Georgia served as a homemaker and RN for over 27 years, to this union they had eight children.

Georgia was preceded in death by her father, Daniel Randolph; mother, Annie Mae Randolph; ex-husband, Joe Earl Shaw, Sr.; her brother, Daniel Randolph; sister, Bobbi Randle; daughter, Brenda Lino; and her grandson, T.E. Orlando Cooks.

Georgia is survived by her brother, Johnny Ray Randolph (Queenie), Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; sister, Ella Randolph, Wichita, Kansas; three brothers-in-law: Charles, Spencer, and James Shaw; sister-in-law, Darlene Eason; six daughters: Linda Wyckoff (late Steve) of Beaumont, Texas; Dianne Miller (Dewayne), Ella Shaw (late Ralph), Georgia Ann Reeves (Fletcher), Virginia Gail Shaw, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; and Lorraine Potts (Anthony) of Dallas, Texas; one son, Joe Shaw, Jr. of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; grandchildren: Shawn, Thiqueta, Yann, Hernandez, Reneaka, Alliceda, Eric, Chris, Marcus, Jeremy, Veronica, Dontrell, Latrell, Latisha, Darion; and a host of great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.