Obituary

On February 9, 1943, God blessed Lawyer and Fannie Prince with their tenth angel, Erma Faye Prince. Erma was born in Rush Springs, Oklahoma where she attended elementary school.

Erma graduated from Duncan High School in Duncan, Oklahoma. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, parents, husband, four sisters and three brothers.

After moving to Oklahoma City, Erma became a member of Faith Memorial Baptist Church. She married Charles E. Stephens April of 1962. Erma enjoyed children, so she worked with children until she went to work as a CNA for Epworth Villa where she worked until her health began to fail.

Erma leaves behind her beautiful daughter, Jacqueline Dawson of Oklahoma City; her extended children: Pamela Boston, William Boston, Patricia Boston-Guyton, all of Oklahoma City; her granddaughter, Nyree Wilson of Oklahoma City; and her shining star her great grandson, Sherman W. Rex, III of Oklahoma City, who she loved dearly; her wonderful brothers: Tommie Prince of Oklahoma City; and J.C. Prince of Chicago, Illinois; her sister, Evelyn Scott of Oklahoma City. She also loved her extended grandchildren: Tobi L. McCoy, Montoya Gamble, Monica Gandy, Tremeshia Lassiter, Iesha Holden, Anthony Cavers, William Yarbrough, Jr., Anitre Yarbrough, Judith Lawler, and Sherman Rex, Jr.; her special children: Ross Parks and Whit Parks; her good friends: Wilma Lewis and Penelope Parks. She leaves a host of extended great grandchildren, nieces and nephews, she loved dearly.
