Ronald Wayne Miller

"Cool Ron"

On Tuesday, May 28, 2014, the Lord relieved him of his duties as husband, father, friend and released him from his physical ailments he suffered for the past three years. He was born and raised in San Antonio, Texas to Elmo L. Miller and Grace Edwards on October 15, 1964. He moved to Oklahoma City where he met and married Ganyika L. Johnson. They were happily married for 12 years and devoted to their sons, Jaquine and Le'Walter.

Ron graduated from Sam Houston High School in 1982. Then, he moved to Rochester, NY where he attended College of the National Technical Institute for the Deaf (N.T.I.D). Afterwards, he returned home, started working at Kelly AFB and later transferred to Tinker AFB in Oklahoma. Ron worked twenty-two years with the Federal Government before retiring in 2010 due to medical issues.

Ron was so proud to be born and raised in San Antonio, Texas. He would always say with a big smile, "Go TEXAS! TExXXASSSS, my home and my land!" Before Ron's sickness, he really enjoyed going back to see his son and family. He loved to play football as well as watch it on TV. He enjoyed meeting with his friends in the Talking Hands Club as well as going to church each Sunday to fellowship with the Southern Baptist congregation and be involved with the Sight Hearing Encouragement Program (S.H.E.P.). Ron was not camera shy and knew how to pose in front of a camera. He loved to watch different sports and really loved the Spurs even though he wanted the Oklahoma THUNDER to win! More importantly than anything else, he accepted the Lord as his Savior in April, 1995.

Ron is survived by his wife, Ganyika L. of Del City, OK; sons, Jaquine R. (Jr.) of San Antonio, TX and Le'Walter of Del City, OK; sister, Cynthia Craig of San Antonio, TX; nephews, Corey Craig, Lorenzo Craig and Donte Craig; great-niece, CorMeeka Craig; great-nephew, JayVohn Craig, all of San Antonio, TX and a host of friends and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, Elmo L. Miller and Grace Edwards; grandfather, Theodore R. Edwards; grandmothers, Sarah L. Edwards and Faye Harper.

"WE'RE GOING TO MISS YOU, RON!"
