Obituary

Delma L. Cornelius, Sr. was born to Lizzie and Willie Cornelius on August 2, 1954 in Boley, Oklahoma.

He accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of The Discovery Church in Yukon, Oklahoma at the time of his home going.

His parents, Willie and Lizzie Cornelius and younger brother, James Wayne Cornelius preceded him in death.

Delma attended school in Boley, Oklahoma and graduated from Boley High School in 1972.

He moved to Oklahoma City in 1972, and briefly worked for Coke A Cola Bottling Company. He then went to work for the City of Oklahoma City Park Department during the day, where he obtained a position as Crew Chief, and served the city for 29 years. He also worked for the State of Oklahoma at night for a long period of time, where he received many awards and accolades for his service there.

He married Carolyn Hammons and to this union two children were born, Delma Cornelius, Jr. and Nicole Cornelius.

Delma leaves behind his son, Delma Jr.; daughter, Nicole; three brothers: Willie Cornelius (Betty), Donald Cornelius (Gennetta), Sherman Cornelius (Denya), all of Oklahoma City; four sisters: Barbara Smith (Eugene) of Spencer, Oklahoma; Leona Combs (the late Nathaniel) of Midwest City, Oklahoma; Wanda Young (Morris) of Buchanan, Michigan; Sharon Holcomb (Jimmy) of Prague, Oklahoma; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
