Ronald Jay Lofties was born to the union of Valorie E. Nichols and Henry C. Lofties on October 30, 1950 in Los Angeles California. The family lived in Watts California at 103rd street and Grape Street and 110th Street and Alameda until 1956. In the late summer of 1956 the family moved back to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Ronald was enrolled at Edwards Elementary School. Ronald moved on to F.D. Moon Junior High School and then on to Douglass High School where he graduated in 1969. After high school he worked for a national manufacturing firm until he decided to start his own business. Ronald was formerly married to Peggy Frazer. A daughter, Tennille, was born to this union. Sometime later, Ronald became one of Jehovah's Witness. He enjoyed giving talks, participating in the door-to-door ministry and working on behalf of the congregation.

Ronald was an avid drag racing fan. He enjoyed attending drag racing meets and watching drag racing on TV. He owned a beautiful green 1972 Pontiac Grand Prix. He enjoyed working on his car and taking it to the drag racing meets and racing on Saturday afternoons. He also enjoyed fishing.

Ronald loved his daughter Tennille very much. Ronald and Tennille shared many fond moments watching 1970's detective series shows together and doing other father/daughter activities.

Ronald is survived by his mother and father Valorie and Henry Lofties and by his brothers Charles and Flora, Michael and Sontonia, Timothy and Susie Lofties and sisters Carol J. and Brown L. Point, Patricia A. Dennis and Ella L. Smith, Deborah and Jerome Henry. He is, also, survived by his daughter Tennille and son-in-law Kevin Edwards and granddaughter Charde'lyce Edwards and a host of other relatives and friends.
