

Annie "Fay" Lewis

Born April 21, 1954, in Waco, Texas to Betty Lewis and Chester Long, Annie "Fay" Lewis was a loving mother, provider, and friend. Annie accepted Christ at an early age. She was a faithful and active member of Silom Missionary Baptist Church.

Annie worked for many years as a homemaker. She would later venture into the healthcare field as she had a heart for others. She worked at the OU Health Sciences Center, leaving for a new passion at for the student at Star Spencer High School. She worked many years before retirement for health reasons.

Affectionately known, as "Momma Fay", Annie was the "life of the party! She loved to spend time with family and friends. Always wearing an infectious smile, if she was not smiling it is because she was busy telling you what to do, and how to do it. She was a good mother, sister, cousin, friend, and adoring grandmother. Her presence will be beyond doubt missed.

Her mother, Betty Lewis, precedes Annie in death; one brother, Mark Combs; not to mention a list including and up to a host of relatives and friends that she can now tell what to do (LOL)!

She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Malocca (Demetrius) Cook; one son, Aaron (Latasha) Lewis; one sister, Lillie (Clarence) Long, two brothers, Michael Lewis, and Nikkeal (Latessa) Lewis all of Oklahoma City; Three grandsons, Randall Marble, LaMartrell and Malachi Cook; two sister-in-laws; Lanita Combs and Evangelist Twyla Thompson, all of Oklahoma City, including a host of family and friends.

Whereas "Fay" had many acquaintances, her life-long friends include Zeporah Frazier, Rita Godlock, Lecha Tucker, Lonzetta Slaughter, Daralyn Russell, and Tannica Sweet.
