

Obituary

Freeman Wilson was born on July 31, 1928 in Kansas City, Kansas to Austin Wilson and Kate Jackson. After the death of his parents, Freeman moved to Goodnight, Oklahoma where he was raised by his grandparents, Roman Freeman and Mary Alice Wilson.

He graduated from high school in Guthrie, Oklahoma after serving two years in the United States Air Force.

On May 16, 1948, Freeman was married to Georgia Lee Allen. To this union five children were born. Their marriage ended in divorce. In 1972, Freeman was united in marriage to Savannah Ogles. To this union one son was born.

Freeman was employed at Tinker Air Force Base for 34 years, retiring in 1983.

Freeman loved fishing, bowling, motorcycle riding and playing dominoes. But most of all, Freeman loved the Lord. He gave his life to the Lord at an early age. He loved working in the church. He had a deep passion for the Sunday School Department in which he was gifted in developing and growing. He also loved Evangelizing and taught classes in it. Freeman served as Sunday School Teacher and Director, Evangelist Director and Deacon.

Freeman leaves to mourn his passing, his wife of 41 years, Savannah of the home; his sister, Eunice Ponder (Henry); sons: Antaiwan Wilson, Paul (Marsha) Wilson, an adopted son, Dewayne Ogles; stepsons: Darrell and Norris Ogles; one daughter, Lisa Hall; eleven grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

His parents, three sons and one daughter preceded him in death. Freeman's favorite song was: "I Love The Lord He Heard My Cry"; Favorite saying: "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day, when the night comes when no man can work, here am I send me."
