

Celebration Of Life

Cecil Wayne Gregory, Sr. was born April 27, 1939 in Hollis, Oklahoma. He was the second of seven children born to the late Spencer and Thelma Thomas-Gregory. In 1955, the family moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where he attended Douglass High School.

Cecil was united in Holy Matrimony to Rose Marie Moore on August 15, 1958. To this union they were blessed with three children; one son and two daughters. They were blessed to have shared nearly fifty-five years together. Cecil's family shared many gathering, vacations, and weekly Sunday dinners together. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Roney, his daughter, Martha Lynn Gregory and his grandson, Cecil W. Gregory III.

Cecil worked as a Machinist for more than thirty years and retired from ALCO.

Cecil was baptized into the Christian faith at Redeemer Lutheran Church where he remained a faithful and dedicated member. He served as a member of the Property Committee, and the Men's Fellowship Group. Over the years, he shared his wisdom and love with his nieces and nephews that helped shape and mold their lives. In his spare time, he enjoyed gardening, traveling, and learning new things.

Cecil leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife Rose; his son, Cecil Jr. (Pea'ril); one daughter, Pamela Cochran; grandchildren: Lloyd, Patricia, and Leatrice McComb; great grandchildren: Champaigne, Dawaun, Kenya, and Octavia McComb, Arron, Elijah, and Faith Gregory; one brother, Newell "Frank" Gregory; three sisters: Pat Lowery, Betty Gregory, and Linda Cudjoe; a special cousin, Howard Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
