

Janie Leanna Jones, the fifth of seven children born to the late John and Annie Parker, arrived on September 1, 1949 in Payson, Oklahoma. She departed this life to be with the Lord on Tuesday, October 21, 2014. Janie accepted Christ and was an active member of the Fifth Street Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Byron Coleman. Janie was preceded in her homecoming by two siblings: Margie Louise Baker and John Horatio Parker.

Janie attended and graduated from Meeker Public Schools and later attended Wesleyan College in Bartlesville, Oklahoma where she completed her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting.

Janie found happiness in life being married to Willie "Darnell" Jones for 22 years, as with any married couple they shared some great and memorable moments.

Throughout her career, she worked as an accountant in the Oil, Gas and Chemical Industry. Three years ago, she retired from the Lyondell Chemical Company of Houston, Texas and relocated back to Oklahoma City to be closer to her family.

Janie had numerous passions and was an "AVID" sports fan always supporting her granddaughter S'Brea and Blake Griffin (Favorite NBA Player). Nobody could ever say anything bad about Blake Griffin and if you did watch out!

Janie leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved children, Stephanie Abston (Jonathan) of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Derek Jones (Renee') of Dallas, Texas; three grandchildren, Anthony Patton, S'Brea Maxwell, and Danielle Jones; one great-granddaughter, Anna'Ly Patton; two sisters, Joanne Dillard (Donald) and Faye Wilson both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; three brothers, George Parker Sr. of Memphis, Tennessee, Kenny Parker Sr. (Pearl) of Warner Robin, Georgia, and Leroy Redd (Pearl) of Midwest City, Oklahoma and a host of relatives and friends.
