

Lewis was born November 11, 1948, in Oklahoma City, to Lewis Eugene Everly Sr. and Lillian Irene Everly. He was affectionately known as "Gene" by those who knew him and as a child he enjoyed time with his siblings, Barbara Henderson (In remembrance), Carl Sanders, Patricia (Pat) May, Michael Everly, Kim Everly.

Growing up in OKC he attended Page elementary, Moon Junior High, He also Graduated from Central High School and later Langston University where he currently holds records in Track and Field. Lewis met and married Sundra Wiley and continued to live in OKC. Three children were born to this union Lewis (Honcho), Damiyon (Damo), Severin (Fitz). In the 1980 he worked for numerous companies including Lee Way and Guthrie Job Corps Center.

In 1996, Lewis started a career at NorthEast (Vikings). For the remaining years of his life he displayed his passion for investing in the students future by becoming a exemplary Teacher and a life changing Coach. Known by everyone as "Coach E" he lead the Vikings on numerous State Championships In Track and Field and he coached many athletes and while coaching he didn't mind telling stories about life. Through this process he has gained many children who see him as a father figure and colleagues who call him brother and friend. He was a natural Leader who inspired people to become better and improve. Once an impression was made it was never forgotten. A TRUE LEGEND.
