

Obituary

Cecil Reece Jr., aka “Little Man”, was born on September 29, 1929 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Cecil Sr. and Ella Reece.

Cecil accepted Christ at an early age. He graduated from Douglass High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He moved to Pontiac, Michigan and accepted employment with General Motors, retiring after 30 years of service.

He moved back to Oklahoma City and opened a paint and body shop. Soon after, he met the love of his life, Katherine Smith. They later united in Holy Matrimony. Cecil “Little Man”, loved to fish, dance, travel, go to casinos in Tunica, Mississippi, and take long walks until his health began to fail.

His parents, brothers and sisters preceded him in death; however, he leaves to cherish his memories; his wife, Katherine of Oklahoma City; son, Milton Edwards of Oklahoma City; daughter, Paula Reece of Northville, Michigan; niece, Maureen Burden of Oklahoma City; five stepdaughters: Joell Lawrence of Northville, Michigan, Rena, Felicia, Marlana, Christina and stepson, Louis, all of Oklahoma City; one sister-in-law, Marcia; three brothers-in-law; fourteen grandchildren (A special shout-out to grandson, Koriontae), four great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.
