

*God saw the road was getting rough
 The hills were hard to climb
 He gently closed those loving eyes
 And whispered, "Peace Be Thine"
 The weary hours, the days of pain
 The sleepless nights are passed.
 The ever patient, worn out frame
 Has found sweet rest at last.
 You are not forgotten
 Nor will you ever be
 As long as life and memory last
 We will remember thee
 We miss you now, our hearts are sore
 As time goes by, we miss you more
 Your loving smile, your gentle face
 No more can fill your vacant place.*

Obituary

Adalberto “H-Town” Quintero was born to Elisa Lopez Castro & Rudy Quintero, Sr. on September 25th, 1992.

He had one daughter Esmeralda Quintero who was his world. The day she was born he fell in love with the most amazing gift he ever received. Some of the proudest moments of his life were to do with his daughter, and boy does she act just like her daddy when it comes to her smiles and laughs.

Most everyone who knew H-Town knew he loved to laugh and joke or give you a hard time. He was always the life of the party. He would forever be causing your stomach to hurt from all the pranks, jokes and random things he did, if it brought a smile to everyone around him.

He spent a lot of time with his brother Rudy, and close friends living life to the fullest, it was never a dull moment when they were together. Anyone who knew H-Town knows he would look out for the ones closest to him.

H-Town and his brother Rudy could almost always be found together and then when everyone would get together, well let’s just say “enjoy the ride”. Lol.

H-Town had a heart of gold, he would do anything to make sure his people were straight. When he lost one of his best friends Tyler Price, he never stopped pushing but instead kept everyone going and held a lot together.

H-Town touched a lot of hearts and will truly be missed by each and everyone whose lives he touched,

We will see you on the other side, until then, keep us all safe and watch over everyone. We love you H.
