Obituary

Shirley Ann Buycks was born May 21, 1954 to Ora B. and James H. Mason in Lawton, Oklahoma. She was the first born daughter of four children.

Shirley was affectionately named Shirlann by close friends and family. Both parents and one sibling Cora Jenkins preceded her in death.

Shirley graduated in 1972, from Douglass High School in Oklahoma City. She later attended Langston University.

Shirley married Charles Buycks “Chucky” on April 21, 1973; she then later wed Arthur Campbell and remained married until his passing.

Shirley was employed by the State of Oklahoma as a secretary and also worked at AT&T, as well as occupying various other jobs. Shirley worked as a volunteer for the Salvation Army where she dedicated her time serving the homeless community.

Shirley enjoyed crossword puzzles, collecting recipe cookbooks, and had a deep love for reading. Her favorite musical group was Kool and the Gang. She was passionate about her family and enjoyed helping others. Shirley had an infectious personality and never met a stranger. She was able to enjoy all of those hobbies until her health began to decline.

Shirley leaves to cherish her memory her former husband, Charles Buycks, Sr.; son Charles Buycks, Jr.; daughter Eboney Buycks; son DeAngelo Buycks; son Richard Buycks, all of Oklahoma City; fifteen grandchildren, four great grandchildren, one sister Joyce (Michael) Jenkins; one brother James Mason Jr., and a host of other relatives

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace, at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with memories of joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
All these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
