Acknowledgement

Words cannot express how thankful we are for the many kind deeds that came our way during the passing of our loved one. Please continue to remember us in prayer. Thank You!

Special Thank You

Aunt Shirley,

We, Sharon's siblings, cannot fully express with words how grateful we are to you for all that you did to assist us in the care of our sister for so many years.

Pam Byrd,

We, Sharon's siblings, want to thank you for being such a kind, caring and steadfast true friend to our sister for so many years. It did not go unnoticed or appreciated. Our sister treasured your friendship.

Obituary

Sharon Woodson “Kay” was the third child of six born to Lawrence Woodson Sr. and Frankie Mae Woodson (Blackburn) in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on March 8, 1957. She was preceded in death by both parents and a brother, Lawrence Woodson Jr.

She was educated in the Oklahoma City Public Schools and worked as a Production Technician at Western Electric as an adult.

Sharon “Kay” accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and remained a member of St. John Missionary Baptist Church until the Lord called her home.

Sharon “Kay” struggled with a difficult mental health disability most of her life. A disability that would make most people despair of life, but she persevered and made the most of life. Sharon “Kay” had a smile and laughter that would fill a room. She was generous, full of praise and complements, but also feisty in setting you straight.

Sharon “Kay” enjoyed music, shopping, and every aspect of fashion; clothing, jewelry, shoes and purses, and had an abundance of them all. Her favorite meal was a “good burger”. Sharon “Kay” really enjoyed receiving gifts; whether for her birthday, Christmas, or just small tokens from her health care facility or church. She always received them with a child like enthusiasm.

To know Sharon “Kay” was to know a person of expressive gratitude that would often break-out in praise and thankfulness to God for blessing her with such a loving family and friends.

Sharon “Kay” departed this life on May 8, 2019. She leaves to cherish her memory, a brother, Gerald Woodson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; three sisters, Patricia (Trent) Fleming, Janice Woodson, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Joy (Peter) Odebunmi of Desoto, Texas; an aunt, Shirley Williams of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, relatives and friends.
