Life Reflections

Derald Wayne Emery was the second child born to Cecil and Beatrice Emery on January 22, 1958 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. His parents preceded him in death.

Derald accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized by the Late Rev. W. K. Jackson at the St. John Missionary Baptist Church where he continued to serve as a life long member.

He attended Oklahoma City Public Schools until high school and graduated from Del City High School in May of 1976. He graduated from Oklahoma City University where he joined the Sigma Theta Epsilon National Christian Service Fraternity. He finished Redlands Community College with a degree in Nursing.

Derald like to do all things well. He served his job well. He was employed at Integris Baptist Hospital and was a beloved and committed employee for over 40 years.

Derald loved working out. He made an impression on his fellow Weight Room workout partners. Many lives were touched due to his openness and genuine concern for everyone.

Derald served his church well. He was a member of the January Parish Fellowship and didn't mind washing the big pots and pans when it was their time to serve every year. He worked with the Nursing Corps of St. John, lovingly counseling and advising many on healthy living. Derald was a dedicated member of the Gospel Chorus and then the Adult Choir faithfully singing beautiful songs with St.

John. Derald was also an original member of the Ambassador's Concert Choir.

Derald served his family well. He was an encourager, advisor, example, prayer-warrior, and Big Brother and Big Cousin supporter.

On June 7, 2019, Derald entered eternal rest. His jovial and caring spirit will be remembered by all who knew him.

He leaves precious memories with his siblings: Marsha Emery Bruner, Penny Emery, Cecil Shawn (Cecelia) Emery, nephew Michael and niece Gabrielle – all of Oklahoma City. Aunts and Uncles Betty Williams (CO), Evelyn McDonald, Bobbie (Oscar) Island, Katie Emery, Erma Emery (OK), Elizabeth Ross, Stella (Richard) Lee and Exie (Eura) Emery. A host of loving cousins, extended family and friends will be forever touched by the life of Derald Emery.
