

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace, at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with memories of joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
All these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Terry Lee Williams was born on December 24, 1964, to Christine L. Spicer and Oliver L. Williams.

Terry is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Nathaniel Williams and Sara Mae Sharp, and maternal grandparents, Johnnie and Hannah Morris.

Terry was baptized at an early age. He attended John Marshall High School.

Terry was a die hard Dallas Cowboys fan. Terry worked as a cook at several restaurants around the city before he decided to what he loved and that was starting his own lawn service. One thing about Terry was if you called on him he was always there. He met the love of his life in 1992, and married Tracy Ware on September 14, 2002.

Terry leaves to cherish his memory his wife Tracy of 16 years; his mother Christine; his father Oliver; two sisters, Torrievette and Charmin; two brothers, Bryan and Byron (Shae), all of Spencer, Oklahoma; three sons, Quinton of Arkansas; Marcus (Suzanne), and Brian of Oklahoma City; four grandchildren, Marcus, Richard, Tiana, Kamari, and one great grandchild Luke; one aunt, Savannah Wilson of Oklahoma City. He also leaves behind his life long friend, Daryl Field of Oklahoma City; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
