

ONE DAY

*One day I'll come to you
One day these dreams may come true.
One day everything may seem blue
You may not know, but I do.
One day we'll laugh, and say I did that too
One day we'll cry about what we've been through.
One day you'll see this is what we were meant to go through
You may not know, but I do.
One day, all those days, all that pain,
Some was even after the rain.
My day is now behind me...
My day has come, but don't cry for me.
My day IS that ONE DAY on this day.*

Obituary

Terry Cornelius Young, affectionately known as "Skip" was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Taft and Earlene Young on August 1, 1949. He was the first of three children.

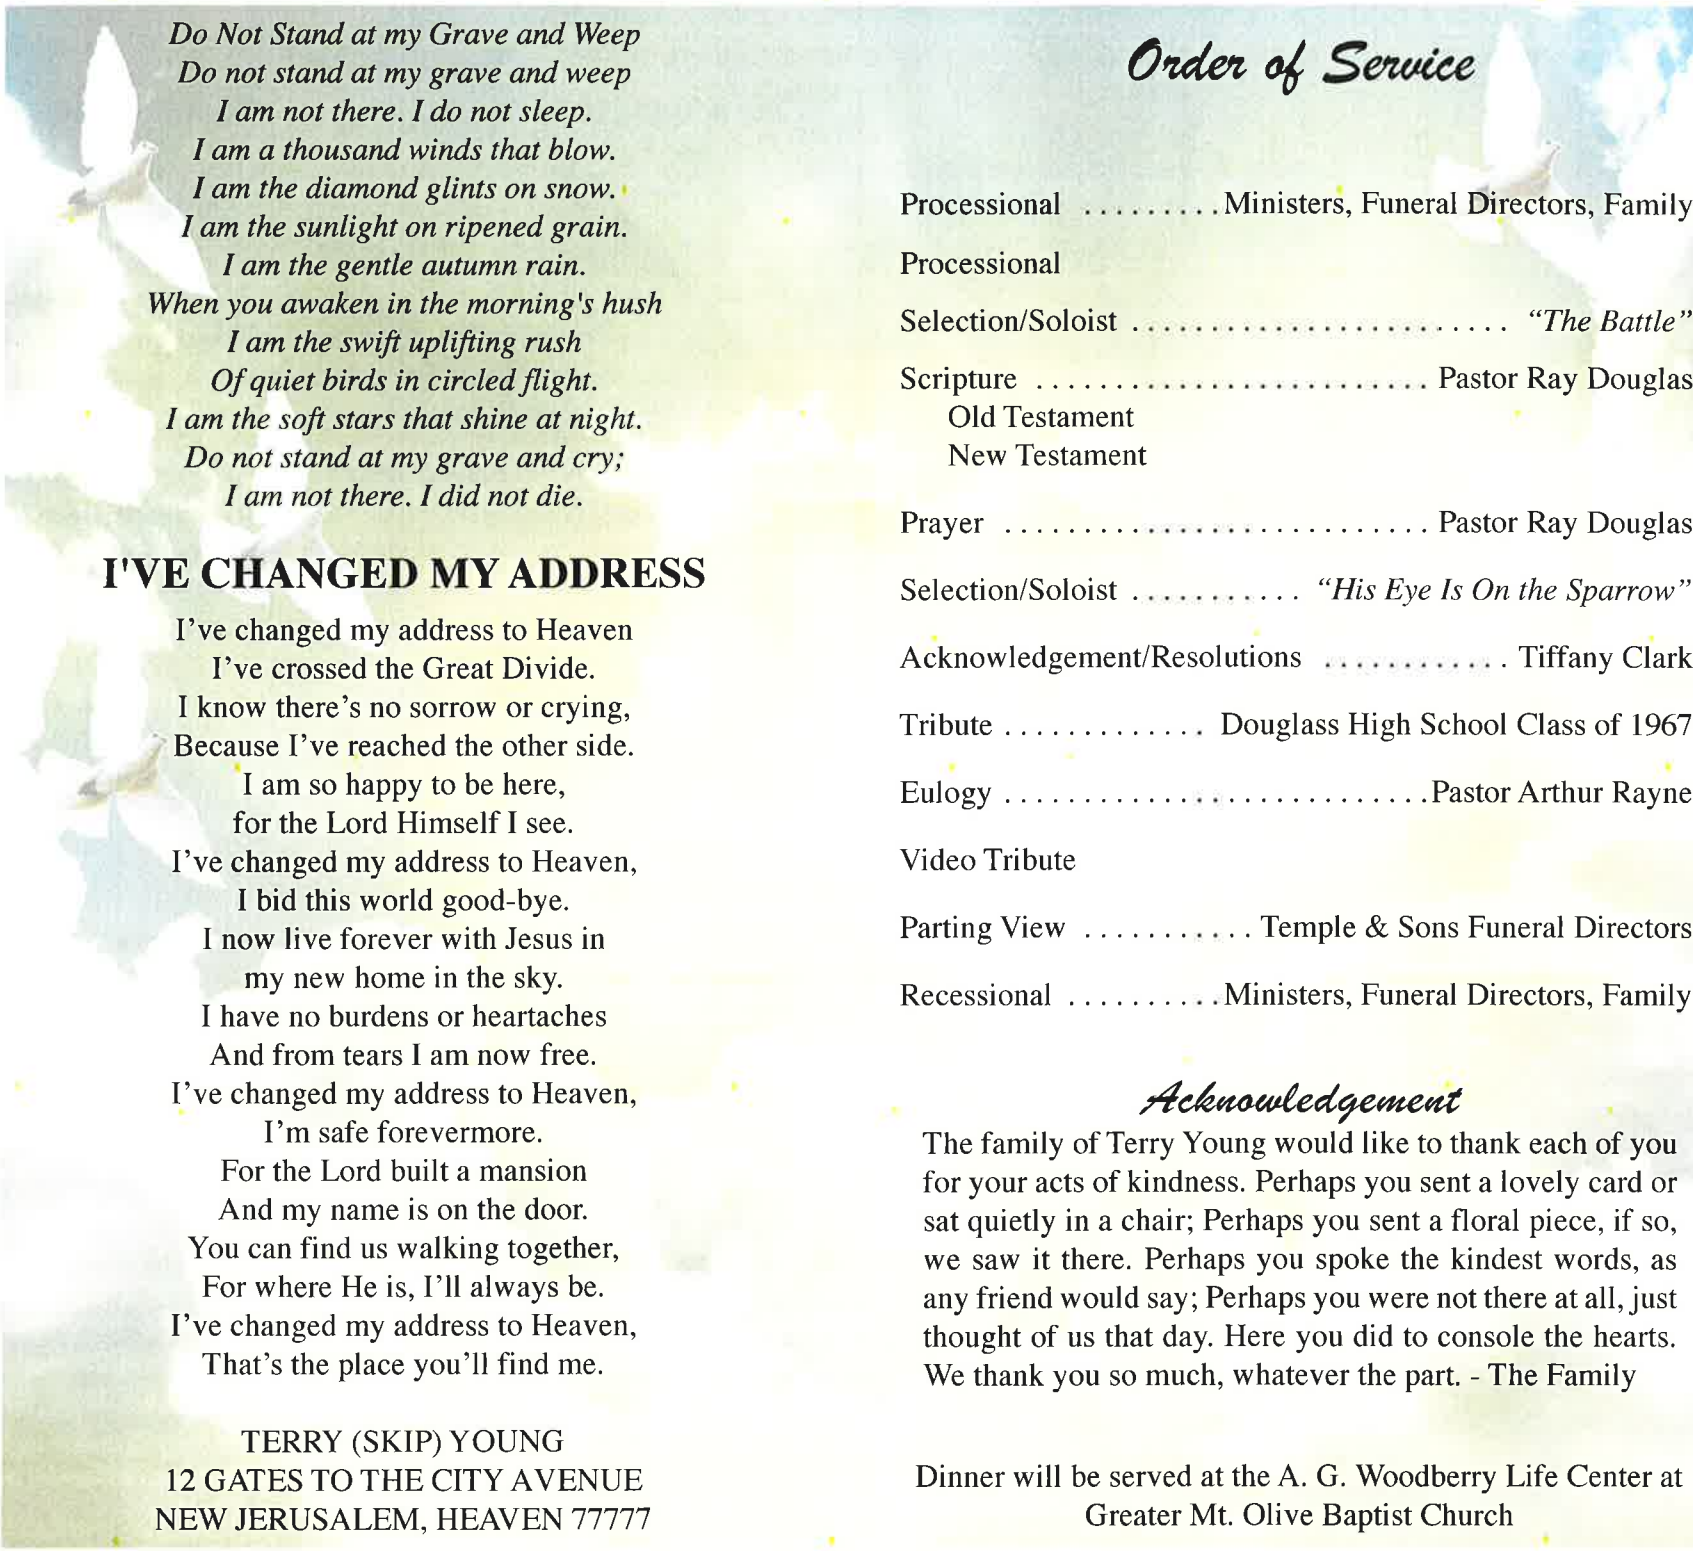

Terry accepted Christ at an early age. Terry was a lifelong member of Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, serving under Reverend E.R. Neal, Reverend E.E. Booker, Reverend Glen W. Woodberry and Pastor Ray Douglas.

He attended Garden Oaks Elementary, Moon and Kennedy Jr. High and graduated from Douglass High School in 1967 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He furthered his education at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Terry pledged Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. in October 1968, in the Zeta Upsilon Chapter. Terry graduated from Northeastern State University with a BA in Psychology and a minor in Math and Education.

Terry married in 1970 to Judy Smith, to this union two children were born: Trevesia Young and Terry Young Jr., the pair later parted.

Terry was employed at Time D.C. Trucking Company, OKC Water Department and labor contractor for American Moving Company and Emrick's Storage and Van. Terry was well-known for his love of dominoes, baseball, basketball, card playing and a stranger to no sport.

Terry was preceded in death by his father, Taft S. Young, his brother Travis J. Young, his mother Earlene J. Young and his sister Sharon S. Young Jones. He leaves to cherish his daughters Trevesia Young (Raphale Greene), Trina Washington and Tenisha Jackson (Robert Jackson); his sons, Terry and Terron; grandchildren and great-grandchildren; one aunt, Viola Cole of Memphis, TN, Lonzetta Nolan of Oklahoma City, OK; brother-in-law, Lee Jones of Oklahoma City, OK; a host of nephews, cousins, and friends many too numerous to name; yet not forgotten, as well as his brothers of his fraternity, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

*Do Not Stand at my Grave and Weep
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*

I'VE CHANGED MY ADDRESS

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world good-bye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
And from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion
And my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.

Acknowledgement

The family of Terry Young would like to thank each of you for your acts of kindness. Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend would say; Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Here you did to console the hearts. We thank you so much, whatever the part. - The Family

Dinner will be served at the A. G. Woodberry Life Center at Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church
