Obituary

Floyd Eugene Proctor was born April 17, 1928 to the parents of Louis Proctor and Luella Proctor in Chandler, Oklahoma. He was the eighth child born to this union. The family later moved to Chickasha, Oklahoma where Floyd attended Lincoln High School.

Floyd was preceded in death by his father, mother, seven brothers: Tone Mulks, Thomas Proctor, RC Proctor, Raymond Proctor, Garland Proctor, Martin Luther Proctor, Paul Laurence Proctor; two sisters: Edith and Bernice Proctor; one son, Bernard Proctor; and two great grandchildren: Austyn Rae Thomas and Gabriel Duane Farmer.

Floyd was united in marriage to Bernice S. Proctor in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (preceded him in death). From this union seven children were born. He later married JoAnn Farmer Proctor, to which he reared four more children and resided in Stillwater, Oklahoma for the past 40 years until the time the Lord called him home.

Floyd was a very hard worker. He was employed with Stephens Ice Cream Factory, Hillcrest Golf and Country Club, Falcon Head, both Cushing and Stillwater Country Clubs as the Head Chef. After many years of cooking, Floyd and JoAnn started a landscape business that operates to the present day.

Floyd set out the fulfillment of this dream with the hopes of impacting the lives of many people. He possessed the character trait of generosity and was always willing to help those in need, providing work opportunities and often food to those in his community. Floyd particularly enjoyed hosting family dinners during the holidays. Politics and money were his most favorite conversational pieces. We could count on him to use his favorite saying at any given moment, "WHAT YA SAY OLD-TIMER".

Floyd E. Proctor leaves to cherish his sweet memory; wife, JoAnn Proctor of Stillwater, Oklahoma; Carol Lynn Proctor Hines (Ray) of North Carolina, Ricky Proctor (Rhonda) of Oklahoma City, Anthony Proctor of Elkton, Maryland, Jerry Wayne Proctor (LeOna) of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Ronda Proctor (Raymond Sr.) of Oklahoma City, Gregory Louis Proctor (Rosalind) of Oklahoma City, Ronald Lewis of Stillwater, Stephanie Lewis-Johnson (Harold) of Oklahoma City, Reuben Farmer of Utah and Chris Coulter (Kylie) of Stillwater; one brother, Willie Lee Proctor of Lawton, Oklahoma; one sister, Johnnie Mae Proctor of Reno, Nevada; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.;
