

Active Pallbearers

John Stewart • Jabari Wamble
John Thomas • Deacon Leonard Snell
Lance Taylor • Donald Woody Jr.
Tracy Taylor • Randy Williams

Honorary Pallbearers

Roland Barnett • Charles M. Hornbeak
Paul Ford • Sean Hornbeak
Patrick Green • Calvin Rice
Kevin Campbell • Amos Wamble

Flower Bearers

Joyce Cheatham • Patricia Stinson
Kaye Russell • Sharon Gallimore
Theresa Kindle

Honorary Flower Bearers

LaNece Green • Kimberlee Gay
Maliaka Kingsbury • Karen Mooney
Virginia Perry • LouVonne Agers

Interment

Hillcrest Memory Gardens
12813 NE 50th St
Spencer, OK 73084

Acknowledgements

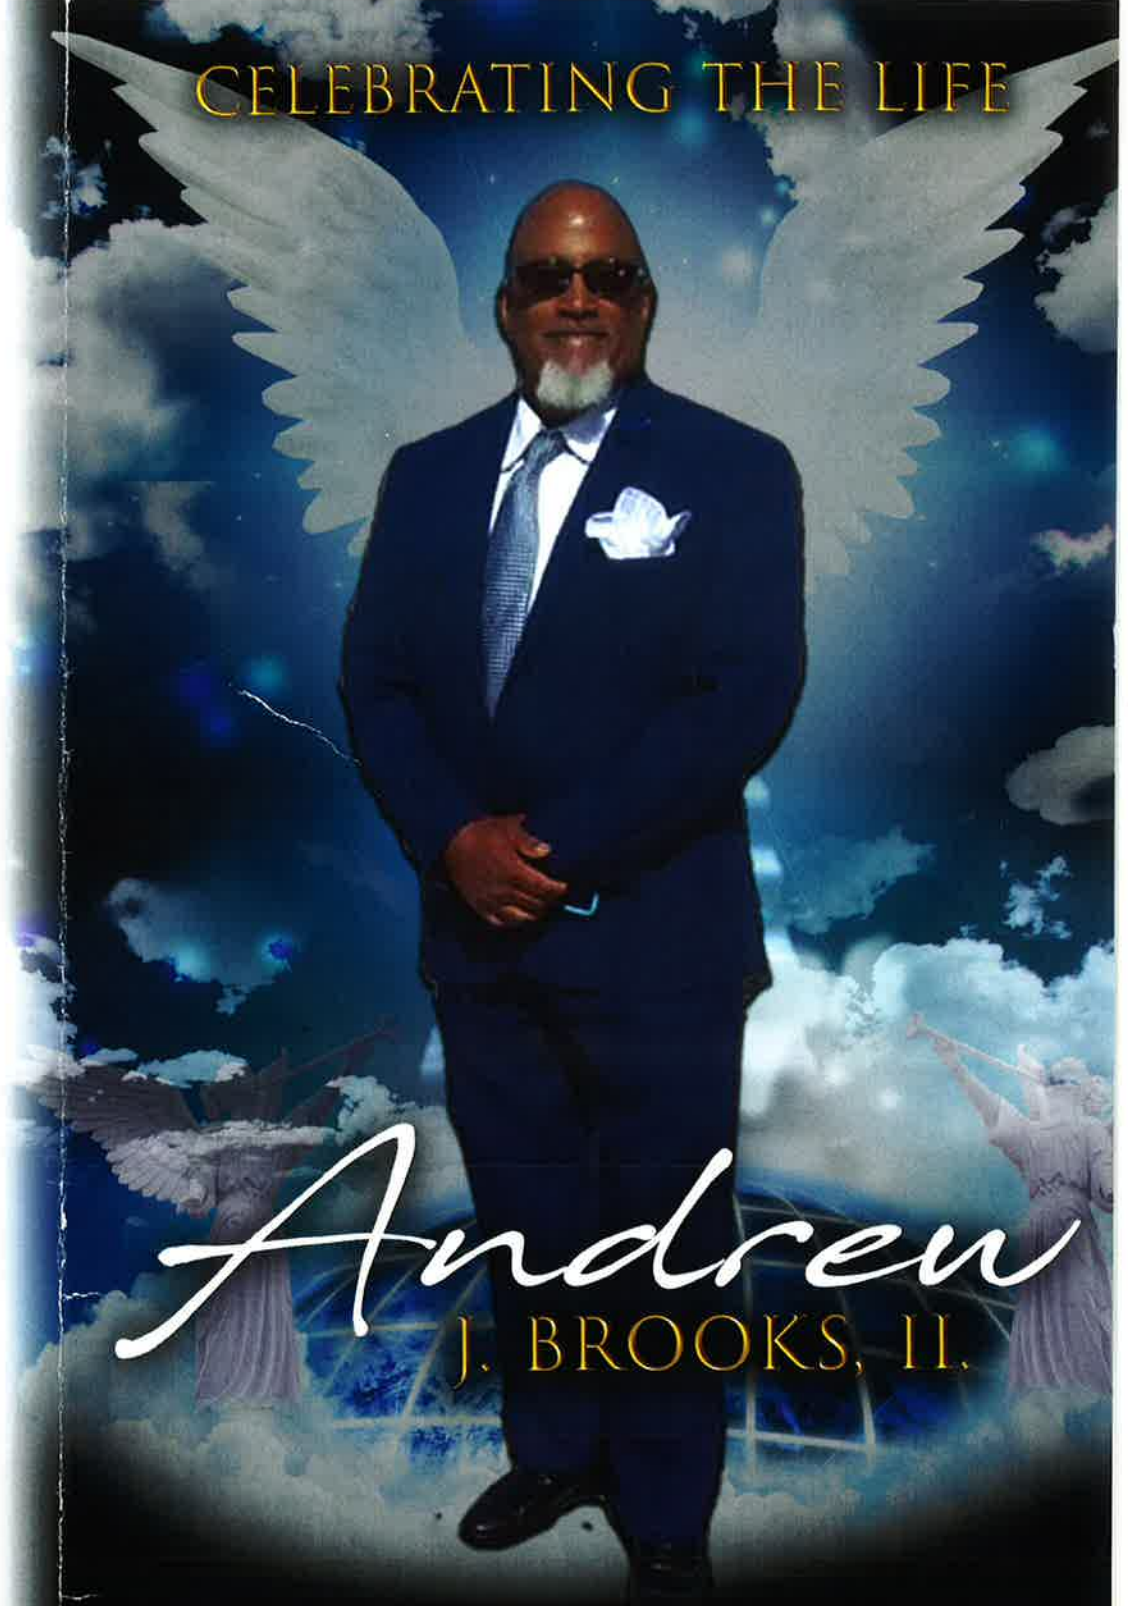

We the family of Andrew J. Brooks, II offer our sincere gratitude to everyone who supported Andrew and our family throughout his illness and passing. Thank you for the food, cards, visits, any part you have played in blessing our family and most of all your prayers.
May God continue to show His blessings upon each of you.

The Family

Service Under The Direction Of:
Temple & Sons Funeral Directors, Inc
2801 N. Kelly Ave
Oklahoma City, OK 73111

 1915 N. CLASSEN BLVD, OKLAHOMA CITY, OK 73106 • 405.524.2513

CELEBRATING THE LIFE

Andrew
J. BROOKS, II.

Sunrise
October 17, 1956

Sunset
October 12, 2019

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2019 • 11:00AM
GREATER FIRST DELIVERANCE TEMPLE
2101 N BRYANT AVE • OKLAHOMA CITY, OK • 73121
SUFFRAGAN BISHOP VANUEL CHARLES LITTLE, JR • PASTOR
OFFICIANT

My Story

I was born Wednesday, October 17, 1956 to Andrew J. & Lula A. Brooks right here in Oklahoma City. I was the fifth child and only boy to a family of girls. I was blessed with four sisters and my father referred to us as him having four Queens and a Jack. If you know any of my stories, you will know that I am no longer a "Jack" but I refer to myself as a "King"!

When a person passes on, there's a symbol between the dates of their beginnings and their demise, that symbol is called a DASH. That DASH, as small as it may be, seemingly it symbolizes, rather it represents and tells of the life experiences of that person. So many stories all contained in that symbol that's called a DASH. My DASH was full of ups and downs BUT the good thing about the end of my DASH is I found my way and in the end I believe GOD was pleased with me becoming the "Come Back Kid"!

I grew up in church and accepted Christ at an early age at Quayle United Methodist Church where I was very active in Sunday school, Choir, Methodist Youth Fellowship and in any church activity that my parents could keep me busy in and out of trouble. I would say, I had leadership abilities and had the Holy Spirit/Holy Ghost. In 1979, that was a life changer. After I accepted my call to the ministry, them folks GAVE ME A CHURCH, and it was out of town. Because God had chosen me, I went but was not prepared to pastor anyone. However, I realized my qualifications were my dependency upon God, relying on HIM for directions to lead. So much to tell in this DASH but I'm moving on.

Fast forward, after many years of doing whatever I thought I was big and bad enough to do, I surrendered to Christ and did it HIS way. I came back to Greater First Deliverance Temple and completely gave my life to Christ! I'm in the best place of my life, more than I've ever, ever been. When I came back to Christ, I looked like the walking dead, my health was poor. One Sunday the Holy Spirit snatched all the mess that was in me out. I was released of bondages, shackles, strongholds deliverances that I had so-o-o-o-o longed for on that day, and I'm still rejoicing. God transformed my life and I've been running for Jesus. I got a medal from the church. I'm known as the "Come Back Kid" and I got a medal to prove it.

Both my parents precede me in death. I leave my family and friends to continue the work of the Lord. My sisters: Onda Taylor, Andrew Lee (Paul Ford), Linda J (Roland Barnett), and Wilma (Amos Wamble). I also leave to cherish my memory and carry on the work of the Lord nephews Kevin Campbell, Lance Taylor (Piotrek), Tracy Taylor (Michelle), and Jabari Wamble (Marissa). Nieces - LaNece Green (Patrick), Maliaka Kingsbury (Michael), Kimberlee Gay (Brandon), and Nicolette Ford. My aunt Joyce Hornbeak and a host of cousins, friends and certainly not forgotten is my dog BooBoo.

Order of Service

Processional
Ministers, Funeral Directors, Family

Song of Consolation
GFDT Praise Team

Scripture
Old Testament - Onda L. Taylor
New Testament - Linda J. Barnett

Prayer of Comfort
Minister Jazmin McConnell

Musical Selection
Adrew L. Ford

Resolutions/Acknowledgements

Melody of Songs
Frank Little

Special Remarks
Two Minutes Please
Linda Lee • John Thomas
Wilma Wamble • Linda J. Barnett

Obituary - My Story
Silently Read

Musical Selection
GFDT Choir

Eulogy
Pastor Vanuel C. Little, Jr.

Video Tribute

Recessional
Ministers, Funeral Directors, Family