

A Fallen Limb

*A limb has fallen from the family tree,
I hear and voice that whispers,
'Grieve not for me.'
Remember the best times,
the laughter, the songs,
the good I liked while I was strong.
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
I miss you all dearly so keep your chin up.
Until that fine day we're together again.*

Reflections of life for Curtis Tillman

On Tuesday, November 5, 2019, at 3:15 p.m., Curtis closed his eyes in a peaceful sleep as he was called home to be with the Lord.

Curtis C. Tillman was born in Chickasha, Oklahoma on June 22, 1946, to Christopher C. Tillman and Gertha L. Tillman, who both precedes him in death. He was the third of four children to this union. One brother preceded him in death, Floyd S. Tillman. Leaving two sisters, Versie L. Wise and Florence A. Mack (James A. Mack) who resides in Inglewood, California.

Curtis accepted "Christ" at a early age and was baptized in Chickasha, Oklahoma under the pastorate of the late Reverend Carl Holmes.

He attended Dunjee High School in Spencer, Oklahoma. He met and united in Holy Matrimony to Evelyn Harris, and to this union one child was born, Sanjah K. Tillman.

Later on in life, he had fathered two children, Curtis C. Carter-Tillman and Caressia L. Carter-Tillman

Curtis loved life to the fullest; he ran, played, ate and had good times, he left no stone unturned until the "Lord" called him home. But yet he was a kind, giving, loving person, and a very strong independent man.

Curtis leaves behind to cherish his memory, one daughter, two sons and four grandchildren: Tak'Hi C. Hill, Tre'Jure Z. Hill, Caressia A. Tillman, Khi'Jure C. Hill; one nephew, and a host of cousins and dear friends.
