Obituary

Robert Gordon “Jenkins” Rose was born on November 6, 1933, to Isaac and Thelma Rose in Lawton, Oklahoma. He grew up in Hartshorne, Oklahoma where his mom met and married his step-dad, Frank “Boots” Moore.

Robert was educated at Phyllis Wheatley Elementary and High School in Hartshorne, Oklahoma. After graduating high school, he migrated to Los Angeles, California where he later joined the United States Air Force. After serving in the Air Force and residing in Los Angeles for several years, he returned to his roots in Hartshorne. There he realized and married the love of his life, Olivia Patterson.

Robert accepted Christ at an early age at Bethlehem Baptist Church in Hartshorne, Oklahoma. He later united with the Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church family.

Robert loved hunting, fishing, and outdoor family gatherings. He also enjoyed feasting on the wild game he and his brothers caught. Because of his love of nature, he never took a job that required him to work inside. He worked and retired from the City of Oklahoma City with the maintenance ground crews and park and recreation.

Robert is the father of four daughters: Chandra Rose and Glynnis Hart (Alex), both of Los Angeles, California; Chivon Gulley (Charles) and Katrina Nubine, both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; two sons: Orenzo Rose (Shelia) of Louisiana; and Maurice Harrison of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He was the oldest of five: Sherman (deceased), Donald (deceased), Richard (deceased), and Kenneth Moore of Tulsa, Oklahoma; his mother, father, and step-dad, all preceded him in death.

Robert leaves to cherish his homegoing, his wife, Olivia Rose; six children, one brother, Kenneth Moore (Brenda); seventeen grandchildren, one aunt, Billie Claxton; a brother-in-law, Dewey Patterson; three sisters-in-law, Ivory Rose, Linda Kellum, and Aretta Muhammad, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
