Obituary

Denise was born February 23, 1955, to Remo and Rosebud Dalatri. She was a smart, spunky kid from what she says. Denise graduated from Beacon High School in 1974. She got called home at the young age of 64.

Denise loved to cook for everyone. She loved to garden and all things plants. Her children and grandchildren brought her the most joy. She had the biggest heart and would give to anyone in need. Denise had three biological children but was a mother to so many of their friends. She was the most amazing mother, grandmother, friend and woman. She was most proud to be the mother of her children, that's where she feels she did right. You knew her love and felt it. Denise would fuss you out and then turn around and cook for you. She loved her siblings dearly, outside of her children and grandchildren, her siblings were the most important people in her life. Some knew her as Denise, some as Mama, some as NaNa, and some as Buttons, but everyone knew her as amazing.

Denise was preceded in death by her parents, Remo and Rosebud; her mother-in-law, Bernice Coursey; her brother, Jimmy Dalatri; and sisters, Renee and Andrea Dalatri.

Denise leaves to cherish her children: Dwayne and Zena Coursey,. Teressa Dalatri, Jeremy and Tiffany Dalatri; her grandchildren: Latoya Garrett, Kevondra Garrett, Antwaine Garrett, Alexis Garrett, Destiny Coursey, Dewaun Davis, Decalun Davis, Alayna Davis, and Ariona Gange; her siblings: Ray Dalatri, Yvette Licari, Michelle Willman, Lisette Wynn, and Stephen Dalatri; also, a host of nieces, nephews, and many friends.

"Beyond Life's Gateway"

*There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own;
Beyond the gate our loved one finds
Happiness and rest,
And there's comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.*
