

"Sister Loves You Forever"

Acknowledgment

The gift of tears is expressing for ourselves that no matter what suffering we face, we can rely on God's never failing love. With the assurance and trust, we can face the times of suffering in our lives as well as the lives of others. Thank you for your love, prayers, calls, cards, and acts of kindness during our loss.

A special thank you to Ashlee Scott, Kelly Pruitt, Johnna Wheeler, Reverend Horace Scott Jr., Pastor Lee E. Cooper Jr., the Prospect Church family, Temple & Sons Funeral Home, and the Children's Rehabilitation Center.

Obituary

Kasiah J'Day Scott was born on November 15, 1999 at S.W. Integris Hospital. Her mother Danielle Nicole Scott blessed us with our "Miracle Baby." Kasiah was a fighter like her mama! She was our Angel on this earth for 20 years. She out lived her life expectancy far beyond the doctors prognosis. Kasiah lived at the Children's Rehabilitation Center in Bethany, Oklahoma from 2 weeks old to 20 years old.

Kasiah received exceptional care from all doctors, nurses, teachers, social workers and staff. We could not have chosen a better place for Kasiah to be. Kasiah's teacher said she was such a beautiful girl who knew what she wanted. Kasiah used a communication device to learn and express things she liked. She was girly girly, and got to attend prom several times. Kasiah loved dogs and all music. Her favorite song was "What Makes You Beautiful" by One Direction.

Our Angel was such a blessing to us all. She humbled us and taught us to be grateful and to appreciate life. We will forever love and miss you Baby Girl. You are now resting at the feet of Jesus and in the arms of your mother.

Kasiah leaves to cherish her loving memory, her sister, Makala Scott; Mimi, Sharon Scott; aunt, Amber Palmer; uncle, Chad Palmer; and a host of cousins and other relatives.

Kasiah reunited in Heaven with her mother, Danielle Scott; father, Sedrick Frazier; Paw Paw, Leon Scott; uncle, Shane Scott; aunt, Shelia Scott Holman. No more suffering! No more pain! Kasiah is now made whole!

Invitation

WHEN I DIE

Written by Danielle Scott
Approximately 11-8-1999

When the good Lord comes
To carry me home
Grieve if you must but you must move on

When I leave
don't think of me as dead
But think of me as waiting
In my new home instead

Cause when God comes back
To release me, I'll be given
My wings and granted eternity
I know it will be hard
Because I'll miss you too

But if you love me
There is one thing you should do

Get yourself ready
So one day we can be together
And eternity we'll spend
In Heaven forever

Hold on to our memories
The good and bad
But remember to rejoice
In the Lord and be glad

Remember the smiles
And even the frowns
Don't forget to look up
Cause I'll be looking down
