Acknowledgement

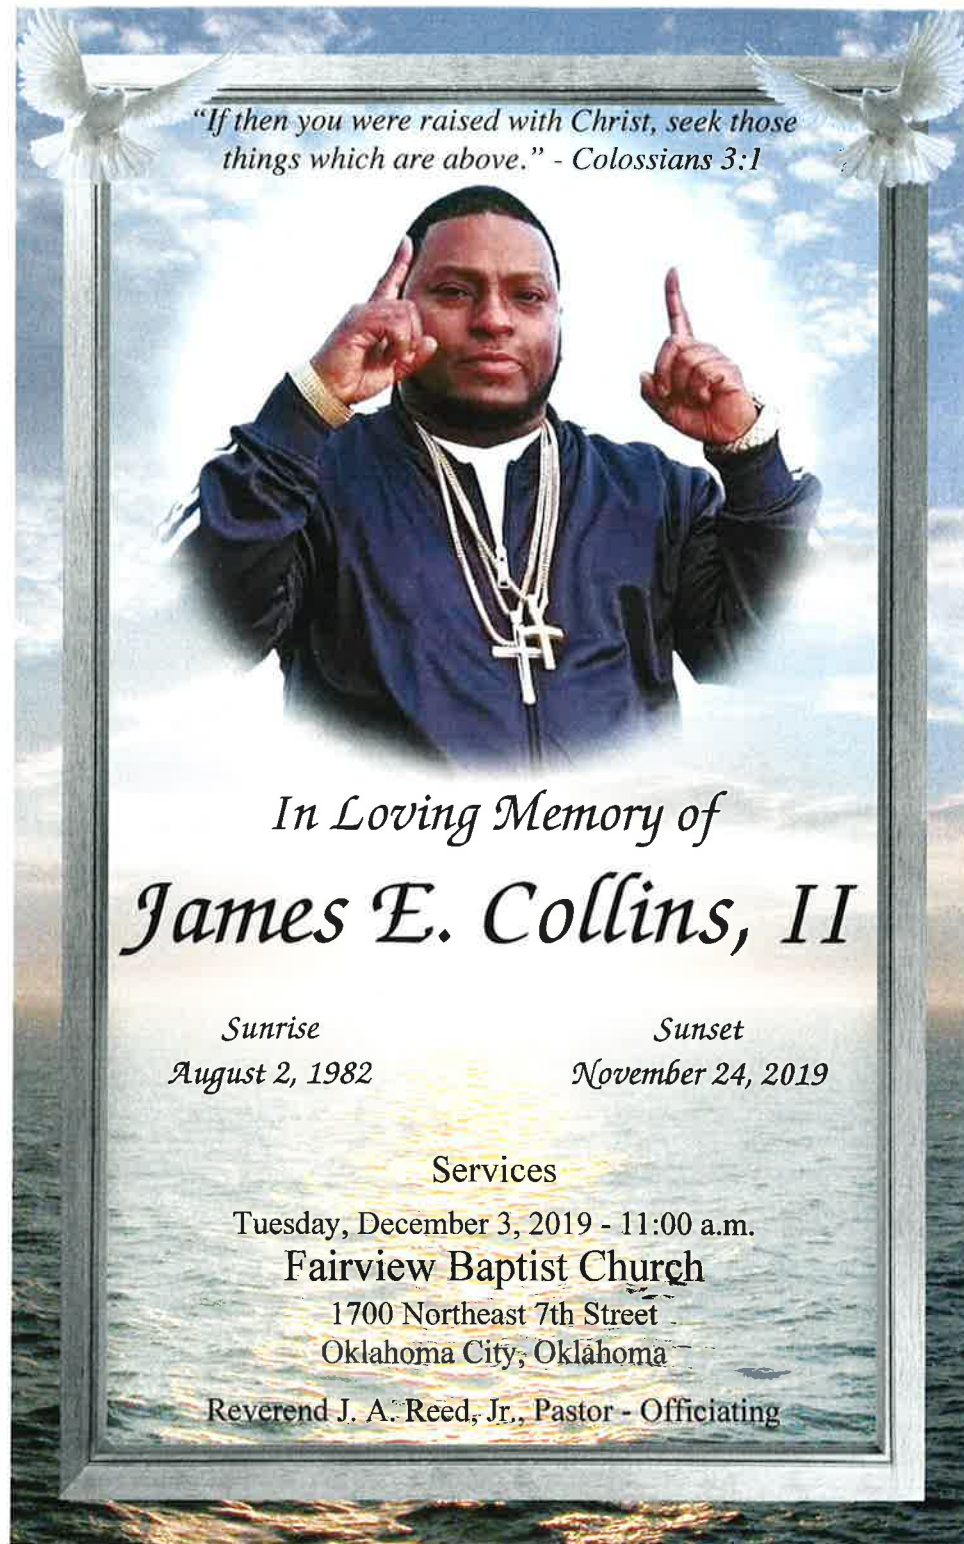

Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a beautiful flower, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke some kind words, as only friends could say,
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food, or maybe furnished a car,
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much,
Whatever the part. May God bless each of you.

Obituary

James E. Collins, II story begins in Oklahoma City on August 2, 1982. He started his public school education at Dewey Elementary School and graduated from Douglass High School in 2001. He spent two years as a student at Oklahoma City Community College.

At an early age, James exhibited a fondness for music and spent many hours with his brother Rhoderick (Pizza) on a keyboard making chords and rhythm. That love of music led him to pursue a career in RAP music. Although he never achieved commercial success, he does leave behind quite the legacy and a large catalogue of music that can be found on You-Tube. James was an ardent fisherman and he loved his baby, a brand new 2012 Silver Camaro decked from wheel to wheel. James united with the Fairview Baptist Church on the basis of his Christian experience on November 16, 2003.

He worked for Fred Jones Auto and later for Climate Masters as an Air Conditioning Manufacturing Technician, where he remained until he was overcome by illness. In 2014, he married Krista Nolen. The marriage ended in 2018.

James was preceded in death by his mother, Sharian Collins and his father, James Collins, Sr. He also leaves to celebrate his life and forever cherish his memory his grandmother, Vivian Jones; brother, Rhoderick (Pizza) Mason, Jr.; sister, Demetria (DeDe) Mason; niece, Deaushna Mason; nephew, Joshua Mason; nephew, Kanion Mason; niece, De'ja Williams; niece, Teleaha Williams; and a special stepson, Kristopher Kemp; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day."

II Timothy 4: 7-8

THE LAST REQUEST

Please don't say that I gave up. Just say I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle for it was God's war to lose or win,

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.

Just say I tried to do right, to give the most I could, not to do less.

Please don't give me wings or halos that's for God to do.

I don't want more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.

Please don't give flowers or talk in hushed tones.

Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God. I've made it home.

Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done.

Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.

Forgive me the wrong I've done.

And with the love that is left, thank God for my soul's resting,

Thank God I've been blessed. Thank God for all who loved me,

Praise God who loved me best.
