

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace, at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with memories of joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
All these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Gayetta R. Ogden “Gay” was born on January 20, 1961 to Vella Lawrence in Binger, Oklahoma. She was a very energetic and lively little girl with big teeth and a bigger smile. She loved animals and would often share her ice cream with them.

She accepted Christ into her life early on and was baptized at Church of the Living God (CWFF) in Oklahoma City.

Gay graduated from Millwood High School in 1979, where she was active in photography and the yearbook staff.

Soon after graduating high school, she enlisted in the United States Air Force and served for almost 20 years. While in the service, she was a nurse and often drove a military ambulance.

Gay was a talkative and opinionated person who had no problem telling you what she thought and how she felt. Many times her opinion was unsolicited and landed her in hot water, but being the person that she was, she seemed to always get out of trouble.

The Lord said “Come home my child:” on December 12th. She was preceded in death by her brother, Marcus; maternal grandparents, Oscar and Zella Lawrence; paternal grandparents, Lester Blakely and Jay Blakely-Beasley. She leaves behind to cherish her memories, parents James and Vella Blakely of Oklahoma City; son Oscar Blakely of Oklahoma City; daughter Athena Ogden of Bremerton, Washington; son Lloyde Ogden Jr. of Great Falls, Montana; son James Ogden of Great Falls, Montana; sister Rochelle Walker of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; sister Yletha Hart (Barron) of Edmond, Oklahoma; brother James Blakely Jr. of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; sister Hope Blakely of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; four grandchildren with one on the way, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and family members. She will definitely be missed.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
