Ora Mae Sherfield was born January 21, 1950 the 12th child of 15 to Elbert Sherfield and Elnora (Smith) Sherfield in Hugo, Oklahoma.

She attended Hugo Public School and later moved to Oklahoma City where she attended Central Middle School and Frederick Douglass High School where she graduated.

At an early age she joined Mt. Elam church and later became a faithful member of Redeemed Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Drinkwater Sr. She had a loving heart and touched all she came in contact with. She loved to check on her family and friends to make sure everyone was doing good.

Preceding her in death: her mother, father, and several sisters and brothers.

Ora leaves to cherish her memory, one son, Darren Sherfield of Oklahoma City, one granddaughter, Merianna Darrena Sherfield of Lawton Oklahoma. Two brothers: Elmo Sherfield and Albert Sherfield and one Sister Enola Sherfield, all of Oklahoma city, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

When I die
Don't you cry
When I die
Give happiness a try
When I am deceased
My soul shall be released
When I make the travel to the grave
Be strong, happy for me, please be brave
When the preacher preaches in church
Look at my body with pride, not hurt
The next time I open my eyes
A golden palace is where I'll be to my surprise
When you think of me
Think of me happily
When your time is near
Don't you fear
For you shall join me in Heaven dear.
