Obituary

Mildred Moore was born July 4, 1930 in Gary, Indiana. She attended Roosevelt High School. She later moved to Del City, Oklahoma and was a resident for 12 years.

She was a member of Fifth Street Baptist Church for five years under the leadership of Pastor Byron A. Coleman III.

Mildred entered into holy matrimony to Ira Moore on July 7, 1949.

She was preceded in death by her husband Ira Moore Sr., parents Charleston and Albert Robinson, also three sisters and four brothers.

Mrs. Moore leaves to cherish her memory, one son, Ira Moore Jr. (Kelli Jo Robertson) of Del City, Oklahoma; sisters: Maurice Butler of Talladega, Alabama; Viola (Raymond) Darden of Dayton, Ohio; Joyce (James) Harris of Phoenix, Arizona; and Darlene Johnson of Del City, Oklahoma; brothers: Clarence (Barbara) Robinson, Lawrence (Bettye) Robinson, Samuel (Bettie) Robinson, and Walter L. Robinson, all of Gary, Indiana; six grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren, sixteen great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*
