Obituary

Bernice Florence Caldwell was born August 27, 1932 to John Thomas Daniels and Corella Hattie Mae Garrett-Daniels in Chandler, Oklahoma. She was the youngest of two children to this union.

During her formative years, a deep connection to the rural community of Davenport, Oklahoma blossomed in her heart. It was there she accepted Christianity and started a spiritual journey that would sustain her with grace and blessings for 87 years.

During her youth, Bernice attended Lincoln County Schools. Before and after school, she spent her time working on the family farm.

Bernice was united in marriage to Leo Ted Caldwell on November 24, 1948. The couple was blessed with two beautiful children: Shirley Jean Givings and Leo Duane Caldwell.

Bernice’s career in housekeeping allowed her to meet a lot of life long friends and prominent figures; such as former Governor David Boren, Dr. Paul Smith, insurance owner Brent Lagere, and businessman Basil Wagner.

Some of Bernice’s hobbies included, working election sites, gardening, cooking, spending time with grandchildren, and playing cards with Darlene Caldwell and Mae Ora Caldwell.

Bernice was a member of Sweet Home Baptist Church for 50 + years and had many positions.

Bernice was preceded in death by husband of 58 years, Leo Ted Caldwell; her mother and father Corella Hattie Mae Daniels, and John Thomas Daniels; brother Kenneth Daniels; and daughter Shirley Jean Givings. She is survived by her son Leo Duane Caldwell (Tuannedia); son-in-law Thymes Givings; granddaughters: Tiara Caldwell, Shamequa Copeland; her two partners in crime, Nevaeh and Gabrielle Caldwell; grandsons: Deion Thompson, Tamas Givings, Thymes Givings III; four great grandchildren; sisters-in-law Anna Lee Heath; (Jim) and Marie Daniels; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.
