Obituary

Frederick James Stutson, better known as Lil Fred, was born to Natasha Stutson and Frederick Williams on December 16, 1994 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He left this world on March 9, 2020 at the young age of 25.

Fred attended Putnam City North and Job Corp, and worked most recently at Affinia in the warehouse. He was also a warehouse worker at Coca-Cola and Macklanburg Duncan.

However, his most important job was to be a father to his favorite person and only daughter, O'Miyah Gabriella Nicole Stutson. In fact, he was a loving, caring father and always made it a priority to spend time with her. She loves Walmart, so he made it a point to take her on a regular basis. They also loved to eat out together and take pictures. She will forever be his princess.

From the day he was born, he was his family's baby. In turn, he cherished and loved on them. He was particularly close to his great-grandmother, grandmother, mother and sister.

Fred was an outgoing person who lived to laugh, play, crack jokes and he was always the life of family events, often breaking it down with his favorite dance. If you knew him, you knew the dance! Nobody was a stranger to him, but his closest friends knew him as Shkoota.

Fred was drawn to music, particularly rap music. He was also a fan of fixing up cars, collecting shoes, and he loved to eat. Burgers were his favorite, but he loved to grill and be outside.

Frederick was preceded in death by his grandfather, Norvelle Norton, uncle, Michael Norton, and cousin, Eddie DeMarcus Phillips. He leaves to mourn, parents ,Natasha Stutson and Frederick Williams, great grandmother Velma Norton; grandparents, Danita Norton and Eddie Stutson, sister, Tashayla Stutson, daughter, O'Miyah Gabriella Nicole Stutson, all of Oklahoma City, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who will miss him dearly.
