

Revelations 21:3, 4

With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

Obituary

Sharon Dell Farbes was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on December 16, 1950 to Otis Gillispie and Essie Mae (Kennedy) Gillispie.

Sharon attended Northeast High School in Oklahoma City where she met the love of her life and future husband William L. Farbes. She graduated from Northeast High School in 1969. The sweethearts were married on August 29, 1970. They were united in marriage for forty-nine blessed years. Their union produced five children.

After learning Bible truths, she was dedicated as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on July 15, 1977 along with her husband William. While raising a growing family, Sharon volunteered as a full-time minister of Jehovah's Witnesses for many years. She devoted her life to helping others learn Bible truths and God's wonderful promises for mankind's future. She had the privilege of attending Pioneer School for full-time ministers twice.

Sharon was a fantastic cook and always had a meal ready for anyone who stopped by the house. Her home was always open. She loved the arts and had a special flair (inherited from her mother) for decorating and PAINTING large scale projects. She had a wonderful voice and loved to sing. She loved nature and frequently took the scenic route. She never met a stranger and loved to talk to everyone she met, especially about God's Kingdom. She looked forward to reuniting with all of her loved ones Her greatest joy was knowing that her children would go on walking with Jehovah.

Sharon fell asleep in death, unexpectedly, on Monday, June 1, 2020. She was preceded in death by her parents, Otis and Essie Mae Gillispie.

Sharon leaves to cherish her memories her loving husband William L. Farbes of Oklahoma City; two sisters, Wilma J. "Suzy"

Prince-Roberts and Charlene M. Pendarvis both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; five children: Alicia (DeAngelo) of Oklahoma City, William Jr. (Michele) of Arlington, Texas, Summer, Kourtney, and Shaun (Kelli) all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; one furry son Budrick "Buddy" James; eight grandchildren: Christian, Brooklyn, Kennedy, Monroe, Nova, Ashlyn Shay, Creed, and Skye; two furry grandchildren Benjamin Button and Pepper Janae; two nieces Kwali and Nikki; four nephews Drejuan, Jamil, Justin, and Cameron, and a host of relatives and friends.

She looked forward to reuniting with ALL of her loved ones in paradise. She was deeply loved and we will miss her until we see her again.
