

God Saw

*God Saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."*

*The weary hours and days of pain are passed,
The ever patient frame,
has found sweet rest at last.
God saw that you were getting weary,
so He did what He knew best.
He came and stood beside you,
and whispered, "Come and Rest."
You bid no one a last farewell, not even a good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.*

Obituary

Yhetta Eileen McCorvey was born to Elijah and Saletta McCorvey on October 12, 1953 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was the second of three children born.

Yhetta attended Frederick Douglass High School and graduated in 1970. While there, she was a Majorette in the band. She also won the title “Band Queen.” She completed vocational school which resulted in employment at AT&T on the production line.

Yhetta enjoyed watching TV, playing bingo, dominoes, word puzzles, going to see her grandkids play at sporting events, traveling to North Carolina to visit her daughter and grandsons. She also enjoyed spending time with her sister and friends.

Yhetta was preceded in death by her parents, Eli and Saletta; her grandson, D’onte Johnson and granddaughter, Jaicey McCorvey.

Yhetta leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memory, her daughter Angela (William) Bailey of North Carolina; her son, Andre’ McCorvey of Oklahoma City; grandchildren: Hailey, Sydni, Weslyn, Jonathan McCorvey of Oklahoma City, Darius and Zachery Johnson of North Carolina; brother, Morris (Vivian) McCorvey; sister, Marcia McCorvey; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends whom she loved dearly.
