Obituary

Kathy Elaine Clausell was born on October 30, 1960 to Elmo and Ann Wilson in Wichita, Kansas. She was one of 13 children born to this union.

Kathy accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at an early age. She loved the Lord and often express so. Kathy attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and graduated from Northeast High School in 1978. After high school, Kathy attended computer school and became employed by Wang Computers, where she worked as a programmer.

Kathy married her high school sweetheart, Brad Johnson, who preceded her in death. From this union, they had one child, Elainna Harris and one grandchild, Destiny Jade Endsley. After the death of her husband, Brad, she later married Alvin Clausell.

Kathy had a compassion for the elderly and disabled. Our memories of Kathy are hard working, passionate figure of strength, who never waned in her support or love of her family and soldiered on even when times were tough. One of her outstanding characteristics was her dimpled smile and contagious laugh.

Kathy departed this life on July 25, 2020 after a brief fight with cancer.

She leaves to remember her dimpled smile and contagious laugh, her loving husband, Alvin Clausell of Oklahoma City, OK; her beautiful daughter, Elainna Harris (Walter) of Oklahoma City, OK; granddaughter, Destiny Jade Endsley of Oklahoma City, OK; her brothers, sisters, and a host of nieces, nephews, and countless family and friends.

Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day,
 And the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little, but not too long,
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love we once shared —
 Miss me but let me go.
 For this is a journey we all must take,
 And each must go alone.
 It's all part of the maker's plan,
 A step on the road to home.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart,
 Go to the friends we know,
 And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
 Miss me but let me go.
