Obituary

Delitha "Bit" Bolton was born on August 28, 1928 to Theodore and Bertha Jones Bolton in Seward, Oklahoma. She was the second of four children born to this union.

Bit attended Page Elementary School and Douglass High School (Class of 1946).

She was baptized and grew up in Tabernacle Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, OK. As an adult she moved her membership to Quayle United Methodist Church, where she worked diligently with United Methodist Women, Senior Moments Prayer Ministry, and her greatest love, the Food Ministries.

Bit was a 30-year Day Worker for the Josey family, where she helped to raise their children, Lynn, Janie, and Madalyn, all of whom remain a part of her life. She also worked at ValGene's Restaurant.

Her community involvement included BLAC, Inc., 49er Waiter Wives Club, and the Seroptimist Social and Charity Club.

On October 24, 1956, Delitha united in marriage with Worley McKenzie, Jr., who preceded her in death after 58 years of marriage. Their very favorite activity was dancing!!! Together they raised four daughters and a special niece.

Bit also loved gardening, and was eager to help others pick the "right flower".

She peacefully departed this life on Sunday, July 26, 2020.

Bit was also preceded in death by her parents; step-parents, Charles Sawyer and Beulah Bolton; sister, Dorothy Smith; and brother, Freddy Bolton.

She leaves to cherish her memory, daughters: Margie Harkey, Audrey Douglas, Denise McKenzie, Gloria Martin (Jesse), and niece, Phyllis Bowen (Horace), all of Oklahoma City, OK; brother, Henry Bolton of Ft. Wayne, IN; two sisters-in-law, Viola Bolton of Ft.
