

Weep Not for Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For all those many years.

There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.

Obituary

Patricia Denise Braggs went to be with the Lord our Savior on Wednesday, August 12, 2020. She was born the fifth child of Mayo Braggs Sr. and Colleen Odessa Braggs on March 21, 1953. She was a resident of Cedar Hill, Texas and lived with her daughter, Sheree Booker Saylor and family.

Patricia accepted Christ at the age of 11 and was baptized at St. Paul A.M.E. Church in Guthrie, Oklahoma, where she was a member of the youth choir and active in numerous church plays and musicals. She was also a member of Vernon A.M.E. Church and Victory Christian Center in Tulsa, OK, as well as other churches in Hampton, VA where she resided for six years. She also attended IBOC Church of Duncanville, Texas until her health began to fail. Patricia truly loved the Lord and it showed through her extended kindness, understanding of others, and her love for all.

Patricia attended Guthrie Public Schools and she represented the class of 1971 as the Football Queen. After graduating high school, she attended and graduated from Langston University class of 1975, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education, and became a member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority. She began her teaching career in education for Tulsa Public Schools. She also earned a master's degree in Education Administration at Northeastern State University. She was an educator for Tulsa Public Schools for 32 years before retiring. She moved to Hampton Virginia in 1985 and taught for Hampton Public Schools for six years. Patricia was a teacher, but to her students, "she was a HERO".

Patricia loved spending times with friends and family and loved the holidays. She also enjoyed music and loved going to concerts with her daughter. She loved to travel with her family and especially enjoyed traveling to her hometown of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Patricia was preceded in death by her parents, Mayo and Colleen, sister; Dorothy, and brother; Mayo Jr. (Skeet) and a sister-in-law, the honorable Judge Susan Woodard Bragg. She leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Dr. Sheree (Rahkim) Saylor, and her granddaughter London Saylor all of Cedar Hill, Texas. Brothers and their wives, Mr. Karl (Tina) Braggs of Grand Prairie, Texas, Dr. Leon (Donna) Bragg of Oklahoma City, Mr. Felix (Avis) Braggs of Houston, Texas, and a half-brother Claude Braggs of Oklahoma City, OK.; Sisters, Mrs. Glenda (Jimmy) Carter of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. Sherrye (Ron) Charlot of Tulsa, OK; Ms. Odessa Braggs of Carteret, New Jersey, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Syretha Braggs of Edmond, Oklahoma, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Patricia had a heart for helping others and her smile spoke volumes to those she encountered. She selflessly gave her time, love and resources to many throughout her lifetime. Patricia was an extraordinary mother to Sheree whom she loved endlessly, she loved her son-in-law Rahkim who made her smile while playing her favorite music or even driving her around town and she adored her granddaughter London whom she taught to dance. Patricia's greatest joy was to be with her family, whom were truly her pride and joy. We will cherish Patricia's memory and love her forever. We will continue to thank our Lord and Savior for allowing Patricia to be a part of our Family.
