In Loving Memory

Patricia Ann Collins was the fourth child born to Mr. Luther and Flossie Collins in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on May 16, 1952. She was preceded in death by her father, mother, five sisters and three brothers.

She was led to Christ at an early age and was baptized at True Vine Independent Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend H. A. Walker. She attended True Baptist Northeast Mission.

Patricia attended Creston Hill Elementary, Kennedy Jr. High School, and Douglass High School where she received her diploma in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. After completing high school Patricia attended Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Oklahoma. She majored in Political Science and Art history for two and a half years.

She moved to California for a short time, then later moved to Dallas, Texas. In Dallas, she attended Graham's Barber College where she received her Master Barber License and her Instructor License. During her time as a barber she cut the hair of many professional athletes and businessmen to whom she was known as "Peaches." Patricia was employed as an instructor for Graham's Barber College and a member of Pilgrim's Rest Baptist Church until her health began to fail.

Patricia is survived by her two sons: Patrick L.C. Jones (Kenya), Peri 'Don Ray Castille and grandsons, Parker Odell Jones and Sawyer Dean Jones of Dallas Texas; her sisters: Linda Christian (Helven) of Midwest City, Oklahoma and Shonda Collins of Houston, Texas. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends to cherish her memory.

Tribute to My Sister

Sisters by Chance

Friends by Choice

Although I'm sad without and wish that you were here.
Within my heart your lovely smile still shines bright and clear.
I treasure all those moments of growing up with you and the secrets we would share.

And as the years passed quickly by, we grew closer still.
I miss you dearest sister and you know I always will.

Love, Linda

Tribute to Our Aunt

What My Aunt Meant to Me!

Aunts have no fancy wands or wings,
So, they work with wisdom, love, and things.

Having taken on this role,
You love us right down to our soul.

You offered kindness,

And greetings with a hug and a kiss,

Each freely out of love, which we will miss.

We choose a twinkling star in the sky at night,

To say a prayer for you, to its bright light.

You are in God's Heaven now and no longer in pain.

In our thoughts, you will always remain.

How lucky we were. How blessed we have been.

You were more than an Aunt. You were also our friend.

We miss you and we will always love you Aunt Pat!

Love,
Your Nieces & Nephews
