Obituary

Ruby Jewel Colbert was born July 11, 1936 to Jessie Mae and Roosevelt Mc Dial in Boswell, Oklahoma. She was raised by her loving grandmother Mrs. Fannie Mae Minner on her farm with her brother Arnell and Sister Claudette. She attended Boswell Schools until they moved to Oklahoma City in the early fifties where Ruby graduated from Frederick Douglas High School.

Ruby met and married Richard Dan Colbert Sr. in 1952. Two children were born to this union, Richard Dan Jr. and Vicky Elaine.

Ruby worked in the food service industry for many years, starting early at Bishop's Cafeteria on Broadway Ave. and she retired from the University of Oklahoma Hospital Dietician Department after 29 years of service. She was known to cook a mean sweet potato pie. All those who met Ruby will tell you that she loved the lord. She was kind and always had an encouraging word for others. She was a devoted prayer warrior with her own prayer room. Through her prayer life she birthed many sons and daughters; it was said that even on her deathbed she yet prayed for her nurses and doctors. She was a church mother at Holy Everlasting Independent Holiness Church under the leadership of Bishop Marvin and Maxine Brown. At the time of her passing she was a faithful member of St. Paul Church of God in Christ. She served many years under the late Elder Herbert Sanders and later under Elder Terry Hines as a Sunday School teacher and willing worker in the vineyard. She was an anchor for her family and she is irreplaceable.

Ruby is survived by her son Richard Dan Jr. and her sister Claudette Colbert. She has joined her husband Richard Dan Sr., daughter Vicky Elaine Jackson (Jackie), daughter-in-law Etta Faye Colbert, Grandson Zachary Colbert, Granddaughters Brittany Jackson and Vicki LeSharmane Colbert in the heavenly host. She leaves to cherish her precious memory fifteen grandchildren and thirty-four great grandchildren.
