Obituary

Mildred Louise Thornton ("Polly") was born on November 1, 1933 to Ray and Naomi Owens in Okemah, Oklahoma. She was the second child and first daughter among six siblings. Her parents, son (Will 'Sonny' Thornton), husband (Will G. 'WG' Thornton), sister (Bonnie Cooper), brother (Clifford Owens), brother (Ray Owens Jr.), brother (Doug Owens) and great grandson (Miles David Roberts) preceded her in death.

After Polly graduated from Clearview High School, she met and married WG Thornton.

Polly aspired to perfect her skills in the work force. Polly knew how to multi-task and get a job done. She was a fast and hard worker and didn't mind doing the hard work. She took pride in the positive results of her work. In earlier years, she trained and worked as a secretary and substitute teacher. She retired from Seagate with over 25 years of service. She also served as a reader at St. Joseph Old Cathedral.

She leaves to cherish her sister Irene (LC) Carson, daughter Norma Roberts (Melvin) of San Diego, CA, four granddaughters, Kia (Derrick) Brady of San Diego, CA, Tracy and Torrie Thornton of Oklahoma City, OK, Ty Chiles of Oklahoma City, OK, one grandson, Malcolm (Travay) Roberts of San Diego, CA, and 8 great grandchildren: Tyreece Rivers of Dallas, Texas, Brandon Chiles, Ray Holder, Ryan Grant, Kendall Colston, Ryleigh Grant of Oklahoma City, OK, Mason Roberts and Carson Brady of San Diego, CA and one great great grandchild: Ajani Jade Rivers of Dallas, Texas.

My Dear Sister

The storm is over now.
You fought a prize winning fight.
You stayed strong through it all.
I was so blessed
To have been by your
Side to the end,
Sharing and enjoying our sisterhood.
Though I will miss you
Each and every day
It is your time to rest in peace.
The strength that you showed
Me in your battle,
Will give me the strength
I need to carry on without my
"Big Sister"
