Obituary

Ruby Pearl Scarborough (Honeybuss) was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on January 15, 1931 to Ben Sr. and Cloteal Honeybuss. Ruby was the last of 4 children to that union and followed in the footsteps of being dedicated to working hard to obtain what you want in life.

Ruby graduated from Douglass High School "Class of 1947" in Oklahoma City and immediately began her journey of hard work. She worked for B.C. Clark Jewelers for a little over 16 years and assisted them with the concrete reputation they have today. Finally she ended her working career with the U.S. Postal Service after a little over 30 years of making things happen with them.

Ruby's favorite things to do was attending church and shopping. She enjoyed putting together outfits that coordinated from her hat, to her earrings, to her purse, and down to her shoes flawlessly.

She is preceded in death by her parents, one brother, two sisters, two sons, and her husband.

She leaves to cherish her memory son Harold Byrd Jr., daughter Janice Byrd, son Tamingo Ränge, grandson Jontue Byrd, granddaughter Dejuanne Fails, grandson Harold Byrd III, granddaughter EeToi Majors, and a large host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

Ruby Pearl was her precious name,
And straight from heaven is where she came.
She helped her family when they had a need,
And she made things happen was the truth indeed.
She is with God now so don't shed a tear,
And we thank him for blessing us with her presence
While she was here.
