

Give thanks to the Lord,
 for he is good! His faithful
 love endures forever.
 Chronicles 16:34 NLT

A MOTHER'S ESSENCE

by Cherita Young

*A gift from Heaven
 Contribution to society
 Provider of Tranquility,
 Believer in me
 Keeper of sanity,
 Heart of hospitality
 Harboring Love,
 Never judgmental,
 Essence never detrimental,*

*"I Love You", words I utter,
 To my Angle known as Mother*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
 Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers, if so, we saw them there;
 Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words, as any friend could say;
 Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
 Perhaps you prepared some tasty food, or maybe furnished a car;
 Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts,
 We thank you so much whatever your part.

With Gratitude the Family

Celebrating the Life of Carroll Young

Sunrise

Sunset

March 13, 1954

November 27, 2020

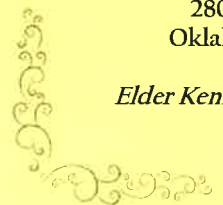

Services

Friday, December 11, 2020 - 10:00 am

Temple & Sons Funeral Directors, Inc.

Earl M. Temple Memorial Chapel
 2801 N. Kelly Avenue
 Oklahoma City, OK 73111

Elder Kenneth Candley, Officiating

Her Life

Carroll was born in Busac, France to Charles and Mary Tye. She was raised and educated in Oklahoma where she met her future husband, Alvin Young. The union blessed them with three children, Atienza (deceased), Cherita and Latashia Young.

Carroll was known for her kindness and hospitality amongst family, friends and strangers. Her home was a safe-haven for her children that she also extended to other loved ones. The advice she was famous for giving, with a smile, was “Pray about it.” Carroll loved and cared for her family. She loved to travel, sightsee and work in her garden. She prayed all the time and studied her bible everyday without fail. She deeply believed that you should treat others the way you would like to be treated, no matter how they treated you. She would say, “You can’t control the actions of others but, by the grace of God, prayer and patience, you can learn to control you. If you don’t like something and you think it may be wrong, don’t participate in it, always look for the positive and good in everything. Childhood experiences and life-events (trials) are not an excuse for bad behavior. God created us for greatness and to help one another be the best that He created us to be.” Carroll lived her life by Christian principles and her fervent belief in God and His tremendous love for her. She shared that love with all that crossed her path and encouraged others to do the same.

Carroll was preceded in death by: Charles and Mary Tye (parents), Ernest Tye (Brother), Atienza Young (Son) and Alvin Young (Children’s Father). She leaves to cherish her memory: Cherita P. Young and LaTashia Young (Daughters), Jane Hughes and Patricia Foster (Sisters), John Tye (Brother), Keturah S. Young (Granddaughter), Allison and LaShell Herron (Step-Children) and a host of family and friends.

WHAT A WOMAN

by Atienza Young

Everyday was a challenge, everyday a threat, everyday I had a problem that I could never forget.

Til the day this Angel in disguise changed my life and gave me pride

*She is cool and wild
with an electrocuting smile,*

*She is warm and caring,
giving, sharing, loving and yes, daring.*

*She is joyful, peaceful and faithful,
no one on earth can take her place.*

*She is one-in-a-million, a priceless treasure
God’s Gift of Love that will last forever.*

ORDER OF SERVICE

Processional..... Clergy, Family, Funeral Director

Prayer/Poem.....Jalonda Cousin

Musical Selection.....Kina Thomas

Old/New Testament ReadingRev. Marquis Foster

Acknowledgements..... TBD

Obituary..... SILENT

Remarks.....(Please limit to two minutes)

Video Tribute Funeral Director

Musical SelectionKina Thomas

Eulogy.....Pastor Charles Allen

Benediction.....Elder Kenneth Candler

Out of respect for the family and these proceedings,
please silence all electronic devices during the service.
Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.