Obituary

Goldie L. Gilbert was born on November 23, 1945 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was preceded in death by her parents, one sister and six brothers.

“Yut” as she was affectionately known as, attended Orchard Park Elementary School, and while growing up in West Town, she would go on to attend Central High School, before moving to Los Angeles, California where she graduated from high school. After graduation, she then moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico in 1971, and raised three boys: Keith, Steve and Michael.

While living in Albuquerque, she applied at the Police Department and worked as a Sheriff for five years. When her mother took ill, “Yut” packed up and moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. While caring for her mother, Charlene, she applied and was accepted to the Department of Corrections as LT., where she worked for fifteen plus years and retired.

Aunt Goldie “Yut” loved her Bingo and played often with her Bingo buddy Alberta. Somewhere along the way, her health started failing. But she was in good hands and cared for by her nephew and caregiver, Wade, who just loved spoiling her.

Goldie L. Gilbert “Yut”, leaves to cherish her memory, one sister, Sidney Bogar of Denver, Colorado; two brothers: L.C. Scott, Jr. of Columbus, Ohio; Jerry Lewis Scott of Denver, Colorado; three sons: Keith (Shanee), Steve and Michael; grandchildren: Tiny Sue Worrell, Aaliyah, London and Lena Clay, Charlie Antonio Ford,; other grandchildren: Shanice Gilbert, Jowanda Garcia, Summer Elan, Raymundo Silva, Michael Gilbert, Alyssa Gilbert, Shawn Gilbert, Jordan Gilbert, Alexander Servizio and Annalucia Servizio-Gilbert; and a host of loving relatives and friends.

Sonny, Danny, Muel, Bogo, Buddy

GOD SAW YOU

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered “Come with Me.”
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer

God saw you fade away,
And though we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

I Love You Aunt “Goldie”
