Obituary

On Saturday, December 19, 2020 Eugene Brown, a loving father and grandfather was called home at the age of 95. Eugene Brown was born on May 12, 1925 in Elmore City, Oklahoma.

Eugene was preceded in death by his loving wife, Precious Ruth Brown; mother, Minnie Miles; father, James Brown; two sons, Charles Jackson and Estelle Brown; one daughter, Vara Joyce Roberts; and three sisters, Lucretia Brown, Ernestine Evans, and Annie Porchay.

Eugene worked as a construction worker for Amos and Kelley early in his life. He had so many things he loved to do in life. Ever since he was a young boy he developed an unconditional love for horses. One in particular, Thunder, stole his heart. Eugene was a lifetime member of the Oklahoma City Paraders Round-Up Club.

Eugene was a dedicated Deacon at New Life Baptist Church in Oklahoma City. When he wasn't attending church, he was enjoying his days watching Westerns or sitting on the porch talking on the phone to family and close friends.

Eugene leaves to cherish his memory, his two daughters, Linda K. Brown-Williams (Bruce) and Velora McDonald; one son, Eugene Brown, Jr.; three sisters, Kernice Mitchell, Marylee Lee, and Treade Johnson. He also leaves behind to cherish his memory, his loving grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, and dedicated friends.

Your Legacy

God gave you a place on earth just for a little while.
As you were passing through you definitely made us smile.

You had a way of making life easier for everyone
you had the chance to meet.

Your kindness was contagious to everyone you greet.

You never failed your family and friends,
you found a way to help somehow.

Through facetime or phone calls or whatever your resources would allow.

And when your life on Earth was done
you left behind your legacy.
Everyone you came across can definitely say,

“You made a difference to me,”
