Reflections of Life

Melvin Ray Brown was the fourth of four children born to Isaiah and Ora Brown, December 12, 1944. Melvin was the last of the union between the two.

Melvin was preceded in death by his parents, Isaiah and Ora Brown, two brothers Isaiah Brown and Don Brown, one sister Thecla Harge, one son Christopher Ray Brown.

Melvin graduated from Douglas High School in 1962. He then continued his education at OU College of Radiography, and Central State University where he received a BS Degree in Allied Health Education. He was a professor at OU College of Health. He was passionate with educating his students and would go beyond what was expected of him to ensure they were successful in their endeavors in this field. After a forty-six year career in Health Education and working in the Medical Field he retired in 2008.

In 1979 Melvin met the love of his life Claudette La-Rue Coleman. Between the two they were blessed with three sons: Christopher Ray Brown, Melvin Ray Brown II, and Aaron Wade Brown. Melvin enjoyed bowling, swimming, tennis, music, and dancing. He always wanted a home with a pool and a grill along with it. He was not a stranger to anyone. If you were around Melvin you were guaranteed to have a good laugh. He was a Sunday School Teacher at Allen Chapel. He last attended as a member at Harvest Assembly Of God where he served as an usher.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife: Claudette Brown and their two sons Melvin and Aaron, one sister Ernestine Dix, and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
