Obituary

Marcellus Rucker was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on February 23, 1963, to Peggy Thomas and Roy Rucker. Marcellus attended Douglass High School. His mother and father preceded him in death.

Marcellus was an ASE Certified Mechanic for 35 years. He loved working on cars, trucks, motorcycles, and big rigs. He loved working with his hands. He loved driving even though he couldn't see. He was determined to get another motorcycle.

Marcellus married Rachquel Brown in 2014, and she had twin boys and a daughter and he had three sons.

Marcellus is survived by his wife Rachquel Rucker; stepchildren: Caleb Brown, Colby Brown, and Courtney Brown; three sons: Alex Beavers, his wife Jannette and three sons, Deshawn Wright, and Marcellus Russell; his aunts: Norma Steele and Debra Richardson, Shirley Rucker, Sharen Littlejohn; his uncles: Sam Rucker, Howell Rucker; and a host of other relatives and friends.
