DEATH WAITED

-- Stanley G. Bradford

Death sat at the door and waited

He had things to do.
No places he had to go.

Death sat at the door and waited

I could dream of things I'd like to do.
Bowl, fish, & ride bikes. No more.

Death sat at the door and waited

People came to see and pray with me.
Make small talk of things.

Sing no sad songs for me.
I've lived and loved.

So Death stand up.
Come on. Don't wait any longer.
Take me where only you can.

And Death Did.

father,
papa,
brother,
friend*
