Obituary

Marva Ann McKaufman was born April 19, 1948, to Julius and Veller Merle McKaufman (Bradley). Her parents, brothers Adonis Simmons, Julius McKaufman and sister Veller Merle McKaufman (Jr.) preceded her in death.

Marva was educated in the Oklahoma City Public Schools District attending Garden Oaks Elementary, F.D. Moon Junior High, and graduating from Frederick A. Douglass High School with the Class of 1966 as a proud Trojan. With a history of high marks in school she was granted a college scholarship to Langston University to study in the field of Home Economics. Marva began her career at the Macklanburg-Duncan Company of which she held several positions for 25 or more years lastly as a highly productive System Analyst before retiring. Marva went on to retire from a second post as a Systems Analyst from Utility General of Texas and then achieved retirement for a third time as an Accounts Payable Representative with the Hertz Corporation of Oklahoma City.

Marva was an excellent bowler and softball player competing in many leagues and tournaments in the Oklahoma City area gaining numerous accolades and trophies in both sports. She grew up playing Ping Pong at school and at the local recreation center truly enjoying it when she had a worthy opponent. Marva was also a great swimmer and seamstress.

Marva was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, wife. Marva was known for her strength, resilience, sensitivity and willingness to help others, and she passed those traits down to her children. She touched the lives of so many with kindness, being quick to forgive, a God fearing leader and protector. Marva spoke her mind, had pride in doing the right thing, prepared her children for life, never gave up, and loved unconditionally.

Marva Ann McKaufman leaves to forever cherish her memory, one daughter Sophia Lorren McKaufman, a son, Parrish Raymond McKaufman and daughter-in-law Chiante McKaufman, grandchildren, Taylor Booze, Kevin Eugene Booze, Nicholas Nealy-McKaufman, Parrish Raymond McKaufman Jr., Patrick Adonis McKaufman, Diamond Williamson, Pierre Alexander, and Courtney Johnson, three great grandchildren, Kendrick Booze, Kemani Booze and Khaliya Booze, a sister, Angela McKaufman, brothers, Devarris McKaufman and Clifton Wayne McKaufman, a former husband Willis Alexander and children Tiffany Alexander, Inga Alexander, and Willis Alexander Jr. as well as a host of nieces and nephews.
